For JapaneseTokyo — G.C.C.—Catholic study clubs have been organized in nearly every sectarian and non-
Christian university in Japan. Reports published regularly in Katoroku Shimbun, Catholic weekly newspaper, indicate that thanks to these activities thousands of non-Catholic students have heard lectures given by many of the leading Catholic figures, lay as well as clerical, in Japan.

Latest report of this kind comes from the University of Tokyo, which has long been rated as the leading university of Japan. Thanks to the energy of the Catholics group there, an average of 200 persons attended a series of six lectures given on successive days by leading priests and laymen in the city.

At Nippon University (14,000 enrollment) a study club was organized in the Engineering Department after the war by Mr. Nakayashi now a Jesuit scholastic. This club has since been extended to the Dental and Agricultural Departments as well as to the Preparatory School.
