Square Dance Listed At St. Andrew Hall

A Square Dance on Jan. 10 will start off Social Activities of Senior Scout Outfit 70 for the year 1967 in St. Andrew's Hall, Franklin Ave. Featured will be Don Mac's Concoctions.

During the past year, the St. Andrew's Outfit has won favor by entertaining various groups with their dancing and singing. Because of the demand of numerous groups which wish to learn to square dance, the Outfit now offers instructions to any Catholic Socially, club or private group desiring such instructions.

These instructions may be obtained by contacting Paul Contestabile, 31 Furman St. or by calling Slope 4000.

The year 1967 was concluded on Dec. 27 with a party at Tay House.

K.C. Fourth Degree Leader Honored

Appreciation for serving Master Cyril J. Statt, fifth district, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, for his successful six years as head of the district, was expressed at a testimonial dinner in Columbus Civic Center, Rochester, Saturday. Harry Statt's successor, Basil J. Vallancourt, ex-state Knights Assembly's president, made the presentation.

State congratulations were brought by State Deputy Wm. E. Burke, Ulster (right). Norman A. O'Brien, (left) was commodore. Faithful Navigator Dr. Frank J. Melillo (center) made presentation of a gift from Rochester Assembly.

State Leaders Join Tribute To Retiring K.C. Master

In tribute to his six years as Master of the Fifth District, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, members of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly told "so fitting." His testimonial gift was a complete piping outfit presented at a dinner Saturday evening in Columbus Civic Center.

Presentation was made by Dr. Frank J. Melillo, faithful navigator of Rochester Assembly.

Master's successor, Basil J. Vallancourt of Elmira brought a check from Elmira Assembly.

Vocal tributes to the Knights of Columbus leader of more than 20 years, were paid by the Rev.

Albert J. Shannon, faithful friar; State Deputy William E. Burke of Ulster and Grand Knight John J. Kinney. The speakers extolled Statt for his example as a Catholic knight and for his high standing as a family man. The family present was evidence of their statements, they said.

Norman A. O'Brien, past faithful navigator, was commodore and guests included Rev. Berlin Newark, C.P., State Secretary Fred Harrison of New York, former State Senator Edward Kiessling of Brooklyn and District Deputy Francis T. Tocino.

The testimonial attended also by wives of the Knights was arranged by Faithful Captain Frank J. Grazz. Entertainment was in charge of Rocco F.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Miller, parents of Charles, Clarence Miller of 41 Savannah St., who was killed in action April 23, 1944, expressed their appreciation on a call to the Catholic Courier-Journal Office.

The story of the visit to the Alde's graves appears in the

Jan. 5, 1968, issue of the diocesan newspaper.
