Vatican Challenge

SOME — (INC) — Palmer Te gliatti, secretary-general of the Communist party in Italy, was challenged here by Observers Romanos, Vatican daily news paper, to prove charges he made recently that the Vatican is serving imperialism and capitalism.

"We want facts and documents" to prove the assertions. Observers voted, said, declaring that Te gliatti was careful to make no mention of Soviet Russia when he spoke of imperialist powers.

Between East, West

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS — (INC)
Only in the Catholic religion can marked find the balance between "the collectivist spirit of the East and the personal freedom of the West," His Eminence Emmanuel Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris, told correspondent of the Dutch Catholic monthly, Europa Cateca.

The Cardinal also expressed the opinion that the great mass of people were not hostile to Christ but only ignorant of Him.
"Our apostolic experience has taught us that the masses ignore God, but are not in revolt against Him," the Cardinal said.

New Wave of Terror

TRIESTE — (INC) — Inauguration of a new reign of terror against religion in Yugoslavia is shown in the report "trials" and "convictions" of Franciscan monks at Pola and Yugoslav communists — and according to this witness it is no longer necessary to argue in favor of the Yugoslav capital. According to reports by Yugoslav official Yugoslav news agency, 15 priests and Religious were sentenced within one week to prison terms of up to 10 years at forced labor, on charges of espionage, operating unlicensed radio stations and "activities against the state." The government.

The charges against the accused priests and religious make it evident, the refugees said that even the simple statement that there is religious persecution in Yugoslavia constitutes a crime in the eyes of those in power. THE USUAL procedure at
