Acclaimed by radio executives as "the finest broadcast center between New York and Hollywood," Rochester Radio City at the result of two years' planning and two years' actual construction, according to William Vay, general manager. It is located at 301 Elmgrove Road, off Culver Road.

A cordial invitation to Courier Journal readers to visit the new studios has been extended by Mr. Vay. Beginning Feb. 14, tours are scheduled from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. daily. Admission is free, but by ticket only. Tickets may be secured by writing to WHAM, or by call at the latter's temporary office in the Rochester Travel Agency, 333 Main Street East.
