Catholics Urged To See 'The Fugitive', Movie Drama of Persecution in Mexico

"The Fugitive," the powerful story of a Mexican priest hunted to his death by an authoritarian government brings to Rochester's Palace Theater this week (Feb. 5 to Feb. 11), a picture of exquisite dramatic art and timely meaning for people of every faith.

Headed by every top-flight New York critic as "one of the 10 best movies of the year" and voted by Catholic writers as the finest example of Catholic drama that Hollywood has ever attempted, "The Fugitive" gives eloquent testimony to the tenacity of the faith in the hours of persecution.

"The Fugitive" ... The hunted priest, (Henry Fonda) in John Ford's remarkable new RKO film, "The Fugitive," risks his life in order to help the help of an un-wed mother (Dolores del Rio). This motion picture which deals courageously with persecution of the priesthood, opened at the Palace Theater Feb. 5.

Rochester Nocturnal Unit Signally Honored in N. Y.

Because of its pioneer efforts and faithful participation in Nocturnal Adoration, Rochester's Society was signally honored at the Golden Jubilee Holy Hour and Solemn Pontifical Mass in New York City over the week end, the 17 dates reported on their return.

Marking 50 years of the Nocturnal Adoration Society's existence in New York State, the Holy Hour was conducted and the Solemn Pontifical Mass celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral. With His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman presiding, the Mass was celebrated by His Excellency, Archbishop J. Francis A. McManis. The Rt. Rev. Magr. Fulton J. Sheen spoke during the Holy Hour.

... to greet Harry F. Sweeney, vice chairman of the New York committee and former member of the Rochester society. The delegation was led by President Theodore J. Houck.
