well known for his work as lecturer, radio speaker, having spoken on the Catholic Home and the Church of the Air. He is the author of "Morals in Families and Professions," published in 1946. Father Connolly was the first president of the Catholic Theological Society of America.

In addition to Father Connolly, speakers will include His Excellency Bishop McFarley and the Rev. Edward Latta, Ph.D., professor of philosophy at Nazareth College, who will preside at the meeting. Members of the Perseus Chok of Nazareth Academy will provide the musical portion of the program.

Mrs. Frank Eaton, president of the Rochester Circle, L.P.C.A., has appointed Mrs. A. Gordon Lee as general chairman of this Family Life forum. An invitation is extended to all Catholic families, members of lay organizations and high school and college students to participate in this symposium to which admission will be free.

Courier Journal Staff Member Is Married

Miss Isabel Mary Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Turner of 423 Riverside Ter., became the bride of John C. Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Williams of 50 Chilver Pkwy., Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in St. Ambrose Church. She is a member of the staff of the Catholic Courier Journal.

Rev. Frank W. Mason, pastor of St. Ambrose, received the wedding vows and officiated at the ceremony before the Nuptial Mass offered by the Very Rev. Magr. John S. Randall.

In the sanctuary were the Rev. Fathers Roy F. Magarty, Charles J. Mahoney, Patrick J. Flynn and Richard J. Torrey.

Attending the couple were Miss Mary Agnes Beyer as maid of honor and Robert Campbell as best man. Bridesmaids were the Misses Mary and Ann Turner, sisters of the bride. Acting as ushers were the bride's brother, Raymond Turner and Edward Morgan, Francis Foley and Joseph Traver.

Following a reception at the bride's home, the couple left for a trip to the Poconos mountains in Pennsylvania. They will reside at 22 Linden Street.
