U.S. Social Work Methods To Be Tried in China Areas

On his return to China in March, Chao-Hsing Tsai of Nanking, will endeavor to methods to the problems in Sociology Club at Nanking College at the February meeting.

Mr. Tsai, a graduate of the University of Nanking in Peiping, was one of twelve picked out of 40 applicants from China by the United Nations to study new methods of social work in other countries.

A social worker in the public ministry in Nanking, he explained in some detail the organization of social work in China and the individual activities available for the preparation of social workers.

Although he stated, there are 124 schools from various nations studying in different parts of the world under the United Nations sponsorship. Four of the Chinese students were sent to Australia, seven to the United States and one to England.

He has been in America for five months, during which time he has studied different phases of social work in New York City, Washington, D. C., Kansas City, Topeka, Chicago and Rochester.

Grid Coach Gives Baseball Trophy

Newark — Awarding of a trophy to troop baseball captain Joe DePolo by Coach Harry Wright of Aquinas Institute featured the annual Fathers and Sons dinner of Boy Scout Troop 120, St. Michael's Church on Feb. 9.

Trophy was awarded to the troop team for winning the Scout League pennant of last season.

Coach Wright announced the Aquinas football schedule for 1948 and warned the guests not to expect such spectacular tri-
