PHILIP H. BLAKE

Throng At New Club

More than 1,000 persons crowded into the newly opened Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliary Home, 265-267 Andrews St., Sunday to inspect the three-story structure.

President Leo G. Rosenfeld, of the corporation operating the club, declared the turnout the largest seen in years at a Knights of St. John social affair.

Officers of the Knights and Ladies Auxiliaries expressed gratification over the many who attended and said that it augurs well for the future of the clubhouse.

Visitors and members told the officers of their satisfaction over the size of the building and its appointments.

P. F. Garin Rites Conducted by Son

Funeral of Patrick F. Garin, father of Rev. Raymond J. Garin of Dollar Bay, Mich., who completed his studies at St. Bernard's Seminary, was conducted Thursday morning, Feb. 19, at St. Bridget's Church.

Holy Cross Priest To Address N.D. Men

Rev. Thomas Brennan, C.S.C., professor of philosophy at the University of Notre Dame, will be the principal speaker at Universal Notre Dame Night observance, President William R. Bell of Rochester Notre Dame Club announced today.

The observance, which is kept by Notre Dame Alumni all over the world will be held Monday, April 5.

Movie of Mass Scheduled To Aid Parish Library

"The Eternal Gift," a detailed sound movie of a Solemn High Mass, with a running commentary by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, will have matinee and evening performances, Sunday, March 7, at the Immaculate Conception Auditorium for the benefit of an enlargement program planned for the Immaculate Conception Parish Library.

Performances are scheduled for 2:30 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. Tickets are available through members of the parish society or at the Parish Library on Sunday mornings and after the Lenten evening services.

Produced in Chicago, the movie story of the Mass has had wide circulation throughout the country. The Mass is celebrated by a Servite Father and the explanation by Monsignor Sheen describes the significance of each ceremony. The movie is aided by professional lighting which shows many of the priest's actions at the altar which cannot usually be seen by the congregation. Choir music for the Mass is supplied by 125 men and boys assisted by the famous Chicago Symphony Orchestra.
