New York (NC)—The Book of the Month Club is "getting into a border" by sending out a book without qualification such as "The Book of the Month Club's Choice" or "The Book of the Month Club's Selection."

Victims of Era No Mystery Beclouds Church Stand on Birth

BY MARIE WEIDMAN

I think your husband's new car is the last word in elegance—and your Cape Cod cottage is charming and gay with its soft drapes and tasteful furniture.

never taken the trouble to ascertain the facts, think so too. It is a sad commentary upon the state of misinformation among our Catholic women on this question when Fortune Magazine found that 63% of Catholic women agreed there should be some kind of birth control plan like that formulated by the Planned Parenthood League.

BLUE PRINT FOR FAMILY LIFE

"The Marriage Encyclical—Blueprint for a Restored Family Life," is the general theme of the 18th annual convention of the National Catholic Conference on Family Life to be held at Hartford, Conn., March 8-10, 1948.

Vatican Paper Praises 'Confessor of Broadway'

Vatican City (NC)—They call him "The Confessor of Broadway," and L'Osservatore Romano, Vatican City newspaper, tells of the work of Magr. James B. O'Reilly, the highly popular pastor of St. Malachy's church, known as "the actor's church," located in the heart of New York's theatrical district.

At Our House Tune of Wedding March Recalls Some Memories

By MARY TINLEY DALY

"You get a certain feeling when you go to weddings," said the Head of the House as we drove to the cathedral, "a sharpening of perceptions. Makes you think. Maybe that's what the scriptures mean by 'putting on the wedding garment'—getting into the mood, we'd call it nowadays."

The WEDDING reception was such as all brides dream of having: dancing and music, food and drink for all the friends of the young couple and their parents. The newly reconciled couple looked as happy as the bride and groom. "What a wonderful day!" laughed the bride-of-five-years.

New Book Lists Catholic Authors

New York (NC)—A biographical dictionary of 620 contemporary authors, who profess the Catholic Faith in all parts of the world, will be issued by St. Mary's Abbey Press. It has been disclosed.

The 812-page volume, containing 620 biographical sketches and 800 photographic portraits, is scheduled for publication next month, according to the editor, the Very Rev. Matthew Hoehn, O. S. B., prior of St. Mary's Abbey, Newark, N. J.

Psychiatry Fellowship Washington (NC)—Applications for the 1948-49 fellowship in child psychiatry at the Child Center of the Department of Psychology and Psychiatry of the Catholic University of America are now being studied.

Ten Cabrini Nuns Fly to Melbourne

Melbourne (NC)—Arrival here of 10 Cabrini nuns to work in St. Benedict's Hospital is believed to be the first time in the history of the Church that an entire community of Catholic nursing Sisters has travelled halfway around the world by air to found a convent.

Nuns Duped By Swindlers

A pair of candidates for "meanest man honors" have bobbed up in widely separated sections of the country, Boston and Kansas City; it has been learned. Posing as priests, both succeeded in swindling sympathetic nuns who were touched by hard luck stories.

CDA Outlines Program on DPs

Southern Pines, N. C. (NC)—Blaming "American selfishness" rather than any economic objections for the delay in admission of DPs into the United States, the leaders of the Catholic Daughters of America have suggested a concrete four-point program to their membership as a means of "liquidating the tragic heritage of the Displaced Person."

Montreal (NC)—For posing as a priest and attempting to collect money, a man was sentenced to serve one year in jail when he appeared before Judge J. A. Colviter here.

St. Mary's, Dansville, N. Y. SUNDAY MASSES—7:30 - 9:00 - 10:30 A. M.

AS THE MARRIAGE ceremony ended, a statistical-minded gentleman beside us pulled out his heavy gold pocket watch, leaned over and whispered "They became man and wife at exactly 10:08."

"Remember?" he whispered. "Oh, huh," smiled the wife. They too, had "put on the wedding garment."
