2 Radio Priests Conduct Forum On Family Life

any issue devoted a special article to it. Father Peyton was one of 12 children who lived in a poor cottage in County Mayo, Ireland. He came to America when 19, finished high school in Scranton and discovered he had a vocation to the priesthood. He entered the seminary of the Holy Cross Fathers at Notre Dame and studied at their seminary in Washington. Just 2 years before he was to be ordained he was stricken with tuberculosis and was desperately ill. He spent long weeks in bed. His daily meditation was spent looking at a picture of the Blessed Virgin on the wall. In all his prayers he asked her to intercede with God for his recovery.

The young priest made a resolution to repay the Blessed Mother by spending the rest of his life trying to spread the Catholic practice of the Family Rosary in 10 million American homes. With his Bishop's approval he traveled and preaching all over the country, saving families to pray together. Four years were spent in trying to sell the radio people on the idea. He was told he could have free radio time if he could interest Hollywood stars and if the program would be for family prayer in all homes. He interested Bing Crosby and then a long list of stars in his show. Now costs of the Family Theater program come from many different churches. The receiving response is beyond imagination.

KNOWN NATION-WIDE for many years, Father Connell is eminent in his field. For more than 25 years he was professor of theology at the Redemptorist Seminary, Mt. St. Alphonsus, Esopus, N. Y. Since 1940 Father Connell has been professor of theology at the Catholic University of America. A lecturer, and radio speaker he has been heard often on the national Catholic Hour and Church of the Air. He is author of "Morals in Politics and Professions," published in 1943.

Members of the Parolan choir of Nazareth Academy, under direction of Sister Rose Teresa will provide music for the program. Mrs. Frank Eaton, president of the Rochester Circle, has named Mrs. A. Gordon Ide as general chairman of the forum. Assisting her are: Miss Regina K. Kennedy, patrons: Mrs. Paul Neubert, invitations: Mrs. Edward Fehbach, tickets: Miss Beverly McLaughlin, ushers: Mrs. Daniel Macken, program: Mrs. Joseph McMahon, publicity, and Mrs. Howard Stuffer, arrangements.

Features Quiz
 Corning — At the regular monthly meeting of the Senior Sodality of St. Mary's Church a quiz on the life of the Saints and a book report by Miss Nancy Dowling were featured. Miss Dowling chose to review "Our Lady of Light" which relates the story of the apparitions of the Blessed Virgin.

Nun-Heroine Honored
 Detroit—(NC)—Sister Mary Brigetta, a Servite Sister at St. John Berchman's Church here, has been awarded the American Legion Medal for outstanding heroism for saving a 12-year-old girl whose dress ignited while she was lighting candles. The nun was severely burned while smothering the flames.

Sodality News
 Our Lady's Sodality held a pre-lenten dance Monday, February 9. Music was furnished by a juke box. This, along with the gay red and white paper, with which the hall was decorated, made fun the main theme of the evening. Alfred Schiavi was chairman of the dance. The chorons were: Mr. and Mrs. John T. Reddy, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frawley, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Moylan, Mrs. Edward P. Dawes, Mrs. Catherine Dalley, Miss Barbara Seaman, Miss Lillian Cullane and John Cullane.

Junior Cake Sale
 The Junior class held a cake sale during the past week to help finance the "Yearbook." Former Principal Dies
 Last Monday the students attended in a body the funeral of Sister Mary Fidelis. Sister Fidelis was the former principal of St. Patrick's Parochial School. She devoted her life to the teaching of others and her death is a personal loss to all of us. Sympathy of the students and faculty is extended to Patricia Cook on the death of her mother.
