Family Guidance Group Organized At Immaculate

Initial meeting of the Family Guidance Group of the Immaculate Conception Parish was held Monday evening, March 1, in the school hall. The fathers and mothers were gathered to inaugurate a series of discussions on how best to prepare themselves to teach their children how to become well-integrated Catholic citizens.

Monthly meetings are planned, most of them to be informal. Prominent speakers will be heard from time to time, and all discussions will be based upon questions suggested by the members themselves.

Officers for the current year are Leo T. Minton, chairman, and Mrs. Thomas Amick, secretary. A committee has been formed with the Rev. George Wood as advisor. A temporary chairman for each meeting will be chosen by the entire group.

St. Patrick's Vets Help Form PAL Club in Parish

A P. A. L. (Police Athletic League) Club was organized at St. Patrick's on March 3 under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Memorial Post No. 1266, Catholic War Veterans. There is a membership of fifty boys from 11 to 13 who meet on Wednesday nights at the St. Andrew's Seminary Gymnasium. The Post also has a Boys' Club on Friday nights for boys between 14 and 16, with a membership of forty.

A Boys' Club was begun as part of the Post's Youth Program on Feb. 18. The first week the attendance was 62 and the second week 85, necessitating a division into the two age groups on separate evenings.

With the approval of Commissioner of Public Safety Thomas Woods, and Deputy Commissioner William A. Lang, the P. A. L. was started to take care of the younger group. Officer Henry Jensen, director of the Police Youth Bureau, assigned Recreation Officer Thomas A. Cellura, to St. Patrick's.

Members of the Post who assist Officer Cellura on Wednesday nights and are monitors at the Friday night club are Joseph Amato, Joseph Infantolino, Eugene Marcano, Anthony Giuliano, Albert M. Lanni, Joseph Paradiso, Sam Travaglini, Sebastian Viscardi, Frank Zucco and Guido Troiano.

Plans are being made to enlarge the program so that a larger number of boys can benefit from the program of basketball, dodgeball and boxing. Brown Square Playground will be used in the spring and summer for track and baseball competition. Because of limited facilities membership must be restricted for the present time.

George A. Tomaselli is Commander of St. Patrick's Memorial Post and Rev. Nicholas P. Alletto is chaplain.
