'Cradle Song' Set As Easter Play By Theater Guild

Highlight of the season for the Holy Redeemer Parish Theatre Guild is the annual Easter play which attracts Catholic audiences from all over the city.

This year's production, "The Cradle Song," is one of the most popular plays ever written. "Cradle Song" is the product of the famous Spanish Catholic, G. Martinez Sierra. Translated into all the civilized languages, it is truly a world-wide favorite.

It was originally introduced to American audiences by Miss Eva Le Gallienne and later made into a stirring moving picture. The Guild is rallying some of the best talent in Rochester for the show which will be given for one week beginning Sunday April 4th.

Patrons are assured of a production which will prove a worthy successor to last year's "Song of Bernadette." "Cradle Song" will be under the direction of Wilford Scott. Casting has begun and committees have started working. Further details will be announced in the near future.
