Doctor Slated For Address To WeddedCouple

Dr. William L. Madden, Rochester Catholic obstetrician, will deliver a talk on "The Physical Relationships of Marriage," Wednesday, Apr. 7, for married couples in St. Monica's Hall at Genesee and Monica Streets.

Sponsored by the Rochester Deanery Council, of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, Dr. Madden's lecture is open to married couples of all ages.

Dr. Madden is well-known to members and friends of the D.C.C.W., having been a recent speaker at a pre-marital course given at Columbus Civic Centre.

In announcing the talk, Mrs. Lawrence P. Weis, Diocesan chairman of the Council's Family Life and Parent Education Committee, pointed out that this type of marriage counsel is part of the Cana Conference movement, a project aimed at restoring the dignity of the family and sanctification of married couples.

Title of the Cana movement, it is explained, is taken from the name of the town where Christ performed his first miracle and raised marriage to the dignity of a sacrament.

A series of weekly card parties will be held in Corpus Christi Hall each Monday at 8:30 p. m., starting Easter Monday, Mar. 29.

Proceeds from these parties under the auspices of the Rosary Society, will be used for charitable and spiritual purposes, such as sending food and clothing packages to Europe, furnishing flowers for the Altar, sponsoring Masses in honor of Our Lady of Fatima on the 13th of each month, along with other projects throughout the year.

Admission will be 35 cents with light refreshments served. The aim is to show what this small amount will accomplish toward worthwhile endeavors.

Since the beginning of 1948 the Rosary Society has shipped approximately 900 pounds of clothing through the War Relief Services, besides packages of food and clothing to individuals in the war stricken areas.

Benedictines to Return To Ancient Monastery

Paris — (NC) — The ancient Abbey of Bec-Hellouin situated in Normandy between Evreux and Lisieux will soon be returned to the Church and reoccupied by the Benedictines.

The abbey was taken over by the government at the time of the French Revolution. Since then it has served as a barracks and a cavalry depot. Prior to the war a project was on foot to establish there a Franco-British intellectual center, but the war prevented realization of this plan. With the return of peace the Bishop of Evreaux has preached one theme: "The abbey was founded and organized by monks for monks. Through them it earned a world-wide reputation. Why should it not be restored to them?"

Factory Chaplains

Paris — (RNS) — Seventeen young Frenchmen who will work as factory and worship chaplains were ordained in Lisieux Cathedral by Celestin Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris.
