

Letters Sent To French From Catholic High

By ANN REIDY

French students at Elmira Catholic High School are now corresponding with boys and girls over in France. Aside from the inestimable value and knowledge to be gained in this unique way of studying French, the letters will undoubtedly provide a great deal of enjoyment for the recipients.

Dear Employment Speaker

Miss Elizabeth Collier of the New York State Employment Bureau spoke Friday to the Senior class in regard to the positions which will be offered to high school and college graduates, the scarcity of just such jobs and the proper manner in applying for them. She brought home to everyone the necessity for preparing now for future work.

Show Their Colors

The Freshman class presented a delightful assembly honoring St. Patrick and St. Joseph Wednesday of last week. The class really outdid themselves with the fine performance and established an enviable reputationary talent. The program opened with the singing of a hymn to St. Joseph by the entire class with Richard VonHendy, class president, officiating as master of ceremonies.

Ann Brown, Marjorie Brown, Rose Marie O'Brizio, Jean Bacon, Jacqueline Dowling sang their version of MacNamara's Band followed by tap dances by Esther Manzo and Barbara McDonnell in keeping with the spirit of the program. James McDermott recited a little tribute to St. Joseph. The Freshman class really is well populated

You Home Again, Kathleen"; Jacqueline Dowling, Ann Moffatt and Jane Riley sang "Rose of Tralee." Rose Marie O'Brizio, Ann Brown, Ann Moffatt and Jean Bacon then sang "How Are Things in Glocca, Morra" followed by the little, freshman nightingale, Esther Manzo, singing "A Little Bit of Heaven."

Carrol Kennedy, a gifted pianist, played two selections and Carroll willingly obliged with encores. Richard Dunn, a second Dennis Day, sang "Dear Old Donnegal." The program concluded with the singing of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

is now the proud possessor of a three-month-old Alfydale. The prize was offered for helping finance the yearbook. Although Nettie, who really has a deep liking for dogs, was a little shy of the dog at first, she is now very happy with her new possession.

Bishop's Oratorical Contest: Catholic High students are filled with enthusiasm as they begin preparing their themes for entrance in the annual Bishop's oratorical contest. The Junior class has the highest number of prospective contestants, numbering seven.

Scholarship Given

Good Counsel scholarship test was given Saturday to several Seniors.

Sophis Have Assembly

Students and faculty were highly entertained by the sophomores March 10. Included on the list of entertainment was a comedy act entitled "Grandmother Nick," which was really a delight to watch. Much hidden talent was discovered as a result of the

Dutch Catholics Take Anti-Red Stand

The Hague—(RNS)—A mobilization against Communism is being conducted by Roman Catholic groups all over Holland.

The Catholic People's Party is organizing meetings throughout the country with the aim of arousing "Netherlanders of good will" to act against "Communist threats." A meeting of 11,000 young Catholic workers in Arnhem called upon Dutch labor to join them in forming a front against Communism.

assembly and credit should thus be given to Sister Jane Marie who was the capable director of the program.

William Mosher thrilled the audience with his fine rendition of the "Hungarian Rhapsody," while Frances Dowling favored with a selection on her violin which was indeed exceptional. Richard Hardiman, well known tenor, also contributed to the program by a vocal selection, "Whiffenpoof Song." Last, but not least, was a parody by the sophomore girls.

Junior-Senior Prom

Plans are being made for the Junior-Senior prom which is to be held soon after Easter. Thomas Agan, Junior class president, and Alfred Schiavi, senior class president, are appointing committees for the hall, tickets on chestra and for engaging the chaperons.
