$135,000 Convent for St. Andrew's

Georgian-Colonial in design, this is architect's conception of a $135,000 convent for 23 Sisters of Mercy who teach at St. Andrew's School. Construction will begin Monday, April 5, according to Monsignor George W. Eckl, pastor. Fireproof throughout and completely modern in every respect as far as residential appointments go, the three-story structure will assure individual rooms for the nuns. With masonry exterior walls and concrete floors, the building will have a reception room, chapel, private enclosed and open porches, refectory and kitchen on the first floor. The community room, bathrooms and bedrooms will comprise the second floor with the third given over entirely to bedrooms and bath facilities. Joseph P. Flynn, H. H. Bohackel are architects. The convent will be located on Barbary Terrace back of the Church.

EDUCATORS LIST SENATOR

Washington — (NC) — U. S. country will be on hand when the convention will be opened formally with a Solemn Pontifical Mass in St. Mary's Cathedral. Archbishop John J. Mitty of San Francisco, will preach the sermon at the Mass, which will be offered by Bishop Hugh A. Donohoe, Auxiliary of San Francisco.

Following the Mass, a civic reception of the delegates will be held in San Francisco's Memorial Opera House at the Civic Center. The principal address will be given by the J. W. Gerald G. Walsh, S.J., of Fordham University.

It is expected that some 4,000 delegates from all parts of the

MAP MEETING OF HOLY NAME

Plans for the 15th annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, scheduled Sunday, May 16, in Elmira, will be completed at a meeting of Holy Name officers and committeemen at 7 p. m. Monday, Mar. 23, in Our Lady of the Lake, Retreat House, Geneva.

Members of the Diocesan Union executive committee, headed by the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn and the Rev. Arthur F. Florack, spiritual directors, and Lewis A. Schurr, president, will meet there with the convention committee of the Elmira Holy Name Deacons. Heading the Elmira delegation will be the Rev. William J. Neaugh, Deacons spiritual director, and Cornelius J. Milliken, president of the Deacons Union.

Other Deacons spiritual directors are: Auburn, the Rev. Eugene McCarthy; Corning, Rev. John A. Smith and Geneva, the Rev. William J. O'Brien. Presidents of Deacons Unions in Rochester, Geneva, Auburn and Corning also will attend.

Auburn Knights Organize First Friday Supper Club

Auburn—First supper meeting of the newly formed "First Friday Supper Group," sponsored by Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, will be held Friday, April 2, in the K. of C. clubrooms, Geneva Street, at 8 p. m.

Appearing as first speaker will be the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, Editor of the Catholic Courier-Journal and author of the widely-read "On Guard" column, according to Chairman William Murley of the First Friday Group.

An invitation to participate in these monthly supper meetings is extended to all Catholic men of Auburn.

Caterer Harry Short has promised an excellent meal. Tickets are priced at only $1.75. All reservations must be made not later than Wednesday, March 31, by calling the "K-of-C" Home, Geneva Street or Chairman Murley at 1082.

The First Friday movement for laymen in Rochester diocese has been given great encouragement by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney. The First Friday Club sponsored by Rochester Council, K. of C. No. 15, in its sixth year and attendance has been faithful. The First Friday Club in Elmira is also functioning each month with creditable attendance. The movement is fostered by the State Council.

The movement was started to foster devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by reception of Holy Communion on the First Friday of the month.

Corning—Mrs. Mary Abel, Mrs. A. A. Gill and the Misses Mary Frey and Mary York are co-chairmen for the annual bake sale of St. Mary's parish. The sale is scheduled for Saturday morning at Kelley's Sports Goods Store on W. Market St.

Sister Thomas' Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Sister M. Thomas Kevany, a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph, were to be held this morning at Nazareth Convent with interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Mass of Requiem Wednesday morning.

Sister Thomas, who was housekeeper in various Rochester Diocese convents, died unexpectedly Tuesday, March 23, 1948, in St. Joseph's Hospital at Elmira.

A native of Ireland, Sister Thomas was one of a group of young women who came to this country in 1880 to enter the Sisters of St. Joseph Order. Her years in religion were spent as housekeeper in convents at Avon, Canandaigua, Geneva, Spencerport and in St. Monica's, St. Mary's Asylum, Corpus Christi and Cathedral convents here. Her last assignment was in St. John's Convent, Spencerport.

Sister Thomas leaves three brothers, the Rev. B. A. Kevany of Oakland, Calif.; Michael Kevany of Ballinacorney, Ireland, and several nieces and nephews in California and Ireland.

Sister Mary Zita Dies in Clyde

Funeral of Sister Mary Zita O'Neil, housekeeper at the Sisters of Mercy convent in Clyde, were conducted Monday morning, Mar. 22, 1948, at the motherhouse in Rochester.

Sister Zita died suddenly of a heart attack Saturday, Mar. 20, 1948, in Clyde.

Rev. L. James Callan, assistant pastor at St. John the Evangelist Church, Clyde, offered the Requiem High Mass. In the sanctuary were the Rev. Joseph V. Curtin, the Rev. John T. Callahan and the Rev. T. Paul Murley. The Sisters of Mercy choir sang the responses.

Born in Buffalo, Sister Zita was the former Catherine O'Neil. She entered the community of the Sisters of Mercy in 1917, received the habit in 1918 and was professed in 1920.

Most of her religious life spent at the Clyde convent, although she also spent some time at the Rochester motherhouse. Surviving are one brother, Austin O'Neil; one sister, Mary Cheney, both of New York City; several nieces and nephews. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Group Seeks to Free Archbishop

St. Bonaventure—A campaign seeking for the release of Archbishop Aloysius Stepinac of Yugoslavia has been launched by the Third Order of St. Francis of St. Bonaventure College, according to the Rev. Theophilus McNulty, O. F. M., director.

Approval of a campaign "to make this a liberation drive nation-wide in scope" was given by Very Rev. Thomas Plassmann, O. F. M., college president.

Headquarters of the National Federation of Catholic College Students and the Youth Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, both in Washington, D. C., have been contacted relative to the current situation. A committee headed by George Shaughnessy, will petition Congress to pass a bill authorizing the President to demand the release of the imprisoned Archbishop.

On October 11, 1946, the Primate of Yugoslavia was sentenced along with eight Franciscan Friars to 16 years of forced labor after a mock trial. Archbishop Stepinac was falsely charged with collaboration with the Nazis and with "forced conversion" of non-Catholics. Shaughnessy declared.

Easter Mass To Be Broadcast

Auburn—The High Mass at St. Mary's Church will be delivered by the Rev. Maurice Shean, Congregation of the Oratory. Father Shean has been conducting the retreat during Holy Week for the members of St. Mary's parish of high school age. The Easter Sunday High Mass, broadcast through the courtesy of the management of WMBO, will be narrated by the Rev. E. Leo Mannus, assistant pastor.

CARD PARTY SET IN ITHACA PARISH

Ithaca—A card party for their fellow parishioners is being sponsored by members of the Holy Name Society in the parish hall, Tuesday, March 30, at 8.15 p. m. following novena services. Table prizes will be provided, and admission is set at 60 cents.

Stylomony MUSIC AT EASTER

More Gladness Than Ever!

This year in hundreds of churches throughout the country, there will be a new joyfulness and uplift in the music of the season—thanks to the Stylomony Easter Organ, which, for the first time, places true cathedral tones within reach of every congregation.

The Stylomony organ has tremendous range and power. Yet it is as compact as a piano, and just as easy to play. Furthermore, the Stylomony organ truly lends itself to the Easter season, still can make a few deliveries in time for Easter—on terms, if desired.
