

Newman Clubs Slate Geneva Convention

Geneva — Preparations for welcoming 150 delegates to the Central New York Province of Newman Clubs convention here April 16, 17 and 18 are being made by a committee of Geneva college students, according to the Rev. Raymond Nolan, moderator of the Newman Club of Hobart and William Smith Colleges.

Highlight of the convention is planned for Sunday, April 18, when His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester and Episcopal Moderator of Newman Clubs will celebrate Mass at 9 a. m.

Working with Father Nolan in making arrangements are committees headed by Co-Chairman, Thomas Schnurr of Hobart and Miss Iris Mazietnik of William Smith. Joseph Trainor of Hobart is treasurer.

Colleges and normal schools throughout New York State outside the metropolitan district will have delegates at the convention. The Newman Clubs are comprised of Catholic men and women students attending secular colleges.

Dante Scholar To Speak At Notre Dame Night Here

The Rev. Thomas J. Brennan, C.S.C., Notre Dame professor of philosophy, will be chief speaker at a dinner April 5 in the Hotel Sheraton when the Notre Dame Club of Rochester joins with 137 other alumni groups throughout the country in celebrating the 25th annual observance of Universal Notre Dame Night.

A half hour broadcast over the Mutual Network will originate in Philadelphia where the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., president of the university, and Frank Leahy, football coach, will address alumni of that area.

Father Brennan, a native of Peru, Ind., was graduated from Notre Dame in 1923, received his doctor of philosophy degree from the Gregorian University in Rome until 1929 when he attained the degree of doctor of sacred theology.

He taught philosophy at the University of Portland for two years and has been professor of philosophy at Notre Dame since 1931.

Father Brennan is a Dante expert and is curator of the university's extensive Dante collection, regarded as one of the most complete in the United States. He is an enthusiastic sports fan and for many years has been considered the outstanding handball player on the Notre Dame campus. He is also an expert golfer, ice fisherman and bridge player.

Woman Attorney Talks At College

A week's course in parliamentary procedure stressing the importance of Catholic organization was given at Nazareth College last week under Mrs. Frank M. Quinn, an attorney of Columbus, Ohio and Parliamentarian of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae.

In addition to the twelve hours of lecture and drill work given, each class, private conferences were held with moderators and officers of various campus organizations.

Purpose of the course was to train students to conduct meetings according to the approved rules of procedure.

A demonstration of the training was given at Student Hour

when a "college convention" was held.

Mrs. Quinn has previously given similar courses at schools and colleges in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Illinois, New York, New Jersey and Ohio. In addition to her I.F.C.A. office, she also serves as parliamentarian for the Columbus and Cleveland Alumnae of the National Council of Catholic Women, the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers' National Convention and Teachers' National Convention and other organizations.
