Scahill Named Secretary Of Homeless Work

Appointment of Thomas F. Scahill, Jr., as executive secretary of St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Ave., where 100 homeless and transient men are given free meals daily, was announced this week.

Announcement of the appointment was made by the Rev. George C. Vogt, chaplain, and the board of directors of the charitable corporation.

Scahill long has been active in the Catholic Worker Group which operates the institution. He will undertake to foster increased House activity and to promote greater lay interest in the work of feeding, clothing and housing the less fortunate men of the community.

In making the announcement, Father Vogt had high praise for "the untiring zeal, loyal persistence and extraordinary sacrifice of the relatively small number of persons who have conducted the House through the depression, war and postwar years."

Though few in number, he stated, the members of the Catholic Worker Group "have established an enduring movement of personalized Christian charity."

"WE ARE ESPECIALLY grateful," he continued, "to the many priests and laymen who have made donations toward the work; to the priests, Sisters and school children who have aided us by sponsoring canned food drives; to the organizations, markets, bakeries and grocers who contribute food; to all who save old newspapers for us."

"Through their help we continue to labor in the spirit of Christ," he said. "For I was hungry and you gave me to eat. Amen, I say to you, as long as you did it for one of these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me."

Pointing out that the 1947 annual statement showed cash contributions of $1,721.26 and income from the sale of papers of $363.04, for a total cash income of $2,084.30, Father Vogt said: "Dividing this amount by the 35,000 free meals given during the year, it will be seen that we have fed hundreds of hungry men at a cost of less than 6 1/2 cents per meal. The reason for this low figure, of course, is that we have had hundreds of dollars of food donated."

Actual cash expenditure for food, he noted, was $599.08, with the remaining $1,685.22 having been spent to maintain the institution, including truck expense, principal and interest on the mortgage, gas and electricity, coal, ice, telephone, water, insurance, taxes, mailing and building repair.

No Community Chest or other organized charity funds have been sought, he added, "because the group always has believed in 'personal, personalized charity.'"

More than 4,000 free night's lodgings have been provided by the House, and thousands of donated items of clothing have been dispensed. The building, which is being purchased by the corporation, is a three-story brick structure containing a chapel, meeting rooms, kitchen, laundry, store rooms and dormitories.

President of the board of directors is Arthur P. Farren. John C. Dentinger is treasurer and Scahill is secretary.

Students Open Rummage Sale For College Building Fund

Annual rummage sale for Nazareth College Building Fund will be conducted by the Nazareth College Undergraduate Association Thursday and Friday, Apr. 1 and 2, at 456 E. Main St. from 10 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.

According to Chairman Miss Betty Jones, Nazareth College Junior, the sale will offer to the public a number of useful articles including toys, dishes, clothing and jewelry.

The articles were provided by the college girls under a pro-motor plan pursued during the Easter vacation.

Aiding the girls with arrangements are Mrs. Leo Fraver and Mrs. Walter Kolesnik.

Inmates To Make 4-Day Mission At Reformatory

Opening of a four-day Mission in Don Bosco Chapel of Elmira Reformatory on Sunday, April 4 is announced in the Easter Sunday issue of "The Don Bosco Bulletin."

The Rev. Jordan Loiselle, distinguished Passionist Missionary of Springfield, Mass., will conduct the mission for the Catholic inmates through the efforts of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Lane, chaplain.

The Mission will begin Sunday morning with a short talk by Father Loiselle. Services will continue every evening, Sunday through Wednesday inclusive at 6:30 p. m. At that time Recitation of the Rosary will be conducted, followed by Father Loiselle's sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Immediately following the services confessions will be heard by a number of visiting priests.

Starting Monday, Mass will be celebrated each morning of the Mission at 8:30 a. m. The Mission will be closed Thursday morning with Papal Benediction imparted by Father Loiselle.

Bishop Scores Legal 'Concentration Camps'

Chicago — (RN.) — The Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, senior auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago, assailed racial and religious restrictive covenants in an address to the Decalogue Society here.

The society, composed of Chicago lawyers of the Jewish faith, presented Bishop Sheil with its annual award for outstanding efforts on behalf of civil rights at a dinner. "It is difficult to understand the type of mind which is willing to confine millions of our people in legalistic concentration camps for a few miserable dollars," the Catholic prelate said.

New Maryknoll Seminary Slated

Chicago — (NC) — A new Maryknoll Junior seminary which will receive students from the Midwest and eventually become the national college for the Maryknoll Fathers is scheduled to open in 1949, following the completion of construction which starts next month.

Site for the new seminary is the former Glen Elynn golf course in suburban Chicago. Ground for the building will be broken on April 6 in the presence of Bishop Raymond A. Lanza, Maryknoll Superior General, officials of the Chicago Archdiocese, and Maryknoll Fathers.

The new seminary when completed will house between 400 and 500 students, all training for foreign mission work. It will be used as a college department, and students finishing there will receive final training at the major seminary, Maryknoll, New York. Maryknoll already conducts large seminaries in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and California. All of these buildings are now overcrowded.

Maryknoll is the popular name for the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America. Founded in 1811, its missionaries today labor in China, Japan, Manchuria, Korea, Hawaii, Africa, Chile, Peru, Guatemala, Mexico, Ecuador and Bolivia.

Easter Communion Total Over 8,600

Fastors in Elmira, Elmira Heights, Horseheads and the Chaplain of St. Joseph's Hospital reported more than 8,600 of the Faithful had received Holy Communion on Easter Sunday. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Egan, V.F., is shown above distributing the Sacred Host at one of the six Masses in St. Patrick's Church where Family Communion was observed.

Large Staff Set For 'Cradle Song'

It takes more than a cast to give a good show. The Theatre Guild of Holy Redeemer Church feels that "Cradle Song" is no exception. That is why they are lining up an imposing production crew to staff this play which they will launch for one week beginning Sunday, April 4.

Perhaps the outstanding example of close co-operation is the Guild's stage crew which has remained uniform ever since the early days of the club's history. Under the direction of Joe Stoeklein, assisted by Joe Placous, the crew has contributed to the success of every production the Guild has undertaken. Its permanent members include Eugene Bopp, Ray Placous, Robert Schapp, Frank Schwan, Charles Vorndran, Otto Vorndran and Ray Vorndran.

Combining their efforts with the stage crew is the rest of the large production staff under the supervision of Helen V. Vorndran, Organization Chairman. This committee includes Mary Jane Cornelius and Mrs. Andrew Mayo in charge of wardrobe; Abe Cook, make-up; Joe Holland, sound-effects; Adele Zaglieb, set props; Mrs. Ray Placous, Mrs. Otto Vorndran, prompters; Julia Tallardia and Gertrude Poole, prompters; Marie Leinberger, Virginia Sullivan and James Dent, Program; Mrs. Ray Warth, Betty Brannon, Ruth Farrell, Dorothy Pallott in charge of tickets and the door.

The settings for "Cradle Song" are being painted by Don Aman.

Police Slate Cavallaro

Carmen Cavallaro, the "Poet of the Piano" and his orchestra will be the feature attraction of the annual Police Ball, Dept. Chief William McLaughlin, general chairman, announced at a meeting this week.

The Ball, to be held in the East Main St. Armory May 7, is a benefit for the Police Benevolent Association.

Cavallaro's orchestra, a comparatively new aggregation, which has recently risen in the popularity of dance music lovers, will be spelled by the Bob Flanagan band, a local group.

The policemen have shown their awareness of the post-war trend to "sweet" music in selecting Cavallaro, whose orchestra is a favorite at such popular centers as the Rainbow Room and the New York Paramount theater. Cavallaro is also a recording star as evidenced by the fact that Americans have purchased more than a million records of the "Warsaw Concerto" since he introduced it on the radio.

Among the motion pictures in which he has appeared are "The Time, The Place, and the Girl" and "Diamond Horseshoe."

Tickets for the ball are on sale at all precinct stations or may be ordered from any policeman, McLaughlin announced.

'Radio Show' Presentation Scheduled at St. Andrew's

"On the Air," a variety show in the form of radio broadcasts over "Station WSAC," will be presented at St. Andrew's "Radio City" Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Apr. 11, 12 and 13. Proceeds will go to the new convent fund.

Over 100 entertainers will be featured in the "radio" show with Bill DeMarse, WRNY announcer, as "announcer-in-chief."

St. Andrew's hall on Portland Avenue is being transformed into a broadcasting studio where "studio audiences" will view a variety of acts. Programs will feature the best in music with Carl Farrell and Jerry Vogt at the piano and Hammond Organ consoles.

"On the Air" will present such programs as "The Hayseed Hour," "Station Breaks," "The Dixie Minstrelles," and "Kiddie Kapers." Among the acts auditioning for television will be a Japanese dancer, a roller skating duo and other dancing teams.

Miss Virginia Sullivan will act as master of ceremonies for the make-up. Stage manager is Arthur Sander. Rev. John LeVeque is in charge of administration and the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel is directing the production.

The show is open to the public and tickets will be available at the door with the first broadcast going on the air each evening at Children's Hour and supervise 8:15.
