

Art Scholarship Won at Nazareth

Mrs. Mary Ann Miller of 310 Walden Road, a Nazareth Academy student, has been awarded the art scholarship offered by the Nazareth College Department of Art. The college has announced the art scholarship, which is worth $200 tuition each year, was one of seven whole and partial tuition scholarships given by Nazareth College as a result of the competitive examination in...

Irish Tenor's Program Lists Varied Numbers

Program for the Christopher Lynch concert Thursday, Apr. 15 at Our Lady of Mercy High School auditorium, will include a variety of melodies ranging from Italian and French love songs to Irish ballads. The concert by the Irish tenor will begin at 8:30 p. m. Proceeds of the event, sponsored by the Mercy Alumnae Association, will go into a fund for a new chapel for the Sisters of Mercy. AMONG THE SONGS offered will be "Lamento di Federico" from "L'Arlésiana" by Cilea, the lament of Frederick, who on the...

STRANGE BUT TRUE Little-Known Facts for Catholics

Stained glass window installed 1946 in St. Martin's Church, Landshut, Bavaria, depicts HITLER, GOEBBELS and GOERING executing St. Castulus, who died A.D. 288! It is now proposed to ALTER THE FIGURES. The SLIPPER CHAPEL, Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham, England is dedicated to St. CATHERINE and is so built that the sun rises behind the altar on NOV. 25, for feast day of St. CATHERINE.

Eight Newark Parish Clubs Join in Discussion Work

Newark — A total of eight Study Clubs provided 79 parishioners of St. Michael's Parish with Lenten discussion material. Four of these groups were organized by High School students. The adult groups were under the leadership of Mrs. William Noonan, Mrs. William Kelley, Mrs. John Ferrell, and Mrs. Mary DeVito. St. Michael's Sophomore Girl's group met each week at the home of Mrs. Isabel Crouch. They continued a study of the Commandments begun last year. On Sundays during Lent, ten older High School students and "P. G.'s" studied the Reformation. Miss Joan Bloomer and Miss Ann DeVries are presently making plans for a pilgrimage to the Jesuit Martyrs' Shrine at Auriesville. Boys in the club will provide the transportation.

Immaculate Guild Hears Mrs. Weis

Mrs. Lawrence Weis, a member of the Speakers Bureau of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, addressed members of the Immaculate Conception Rosary Guild Monday evening, April 5. Her talk was entitled, "The Three and We," an outlook into the future with an eye on the Christian Family as the source of earthly peace and happiness. Miss Anna Coyne, President of the Guild, presented the officers for the current year. Mrs. Frederick Resch and Mrs. Frank Spencer will act as vice-presidents; Mrs. Ida Fleming, recording secretary and Mrs. Raymond Creighton, treasurer. Plans for the annual Communion Breakfast were completed for the first Sunday in May. Mrs. Frederick Resch and Mrs. Ida Fleming will act as co-chairmen, being assisted by Mrs. Walter Kelly.

Scholarship Test Honors to Mercy

Madeline Grant and Madeline Klee, two seniors of Our Lady of Mercy High School, received certificates of distinguished performance from the Pepsi-Cola Scholarship Board for making an outstanding score on the preliminary selection test given to seniors. Both students scored among the highest 10 per cent of the 46,112 selected high school seniors throughout the nation who took the Pepsi-Cola Scholarship test in November. These certificates were sent to those pupils in the nation not receiving other awards. Madeline Grant has earned a tuition scholarship to Notre Dame of Maryland resulting from the college entrance board test, while Madeline Klee was awarded a partial tuition scholarship to Nazareth College.

Mrs. Loritz Talk At St. Salome

Mrs. Elmer Loritz will be guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Mission Society of St. Salome's Church Wednesday, Apr. 14, at 8:30 p. m. in the school hall. Mrs. Loritz' topic will be "Catholic Women." A special luncheon is being planned for the evening by the choir members. All members are urged to attend. Plans are being made for the dance being sponsored by the Mission Society Saturday, Apr. 17.
