Knights Unit Lists Dance

Holy Rosary Commandery 108 Knights of St. John has outlined an ambitious program of spring activities for April and May. First in a series of social events is a Spring Party featuring the music of Randy Parsons and his orchestra, playing for round and square dances to be held in Holy Rosary Hall on Saturday evening, April 10.
Sir Knight Carl Zimmer, in charge of arrangements announces that refreshments will be served. Tickets are available at the Hall or from members.
On Saturday April 17, the scene will shift to Rock's Bowling Hall on Lake Avenue where the commandery members, their families and friends will enjoy a bowling party, second to be held this season by the membership under the direction of Sergeant Al Scranon who is accepting reservations.
On April 24 another dance will take place in the Holy Rosary Hall with Randy Parsons calling the do-de-dos and "swing your partners".
As part of a concerted membership drive sponsored by the Commandery an Open House meeting featuring entertainment and refreshments will take place in Holy Rosary Hall of Tuesday May 25. All old and new members and prospective candidates for membership are invited to participate in all the planned social events.
