

Cardinal Urges Social Justice To Combat Reds

London (NC) — The red Communist coup in Czechoslovakia has greatly shocked the people of Britain but a "seriously negative attitude toward Communism is not sufficient. It can only be crushed by social justice. His Eminence Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster, said in a sermon in Westminster Cathedral.

Spread Social Rule British Bishops Ask

London (RNS) — The Catholic hierarchy of England and Wales has issued a statement calling upon Catholics to combat Communism by taking an active part in trade union activities, and to spread the social teachings of the Church.

Redemptorist New Postmaster

Lisbon, Mo. (NC) — The United States Post Office Department has established a new post office on the property of the Redemptorist Fathers here under the name Liguori, after St. Alphonsus Liguori, founder of the Redemptorists. The Rev. Francis Kowalski, O.S.M., has been named acting postmaster.

Religion Curbed In Czech Schools

Prague (NC) — Obligatory religious instruction for children over the age of 15 will be abolished and all schools will be operated by the state, according to the eagerly-awaited draft of the new school law which will go into effect on September 1, 1948.

Declaring that Catholics are faced with a great challenge—whether we are for God or against God," the hierarchy asserted that "we accept the challenge."
