SODALITY TO NAME STAFF

Election of two officers and planning of two forthcoming events will be on the program for members of Rochester Deaneary Sodality Union, meeting at Holy Redeemer Hall, Monday evening, April 19, at 8 o'clock.

A Vice Prefect and a Treasurer of the Sodality Union will be named. Plans for the annual banquet at a date to be fixed will be formulated as well as arrangements made for the Sodality Rally, May 23.

Entertainment in the form of pantomime on the Joyful Mysteries and retreatments will be provided by the Holy Redeemer Sodality.

Sodality Union Prefect Bernice Terhaar will preside.

Bowling Slated By Knights Unit

The pins on Rock's Bowling Alleys, Lake Avenue are in for a bad night next Saturday, April 17 when members of Commandery 106 Knights of St. John hold their second bowling party of the current season.

The Knights of Holy Rosary Church, their ladies and friends are planning an evening of fun and frolic according to Sergeant Albert Scranon, who is in charge of the event and is accepting reservations.

This bowling party follows a Spring Dance held by the Commandery in Holy Rosary Hall last Saturday evening, and is one of a series of social activities sponsored by the Commandery to swell the scholarship fund established last year to provide scholarships to Aquinas Institute and Nazareth Academy for outstanding pupils of this year's graduating class of Holy Rosary School.

An Open House with entertainment and refreshments for members and prospective members has been scheduled for Tuesday May 25 in Holy Rosary Hall.

Indians Win Championship Ball League For Sodality

Maintaining their lead throughout the season, Gus Nolan's Indians won the Knights of Columbus Bowling Trophy when they defeated Paul Monigle's Columbians three straight games Wednesday, April 7 at Columbus Civic Center. The winning combination consisted of Larry Morrow, Bill Eckert, Feehan Fitzpatrick, Rocco Natale and Captain Gus Nolan.

A late drive by the Mutineers with Gene Austing, Cliff Sargent and Tom Wandke performing yeoman work together with Bill Rellich, Nick Long and Joe Cole enabled their club to nose out Al Woerner's Santos and J. Irving Van Slykes' Knights for second place honors.

The latter two teams are deadlocked for third and fourth positions. Bob Hand's Pintas, Ray Hasenauer's Guards and Grand Knight John J. Kinney's Klutas took fifth, sixth and seventh positions.

Gene Austing 175, Jack Hill's 174 and Walter Budd's 173 made them high individual average bowlers of the circuit.

School League Meets Friday

Catholic grammar schools wishing to play in the Parochial School Softball League must be represented at a special meeting at 8 p. m., Friday, Apr. 16, in Parlor A, Columbus Civic Centre.

Game rules, schedules and playing fields will be decided at this meeting. Opening games are planned about the first week in May.

The league will be divided into four divisions this year, to shorten the schedule and facilitate transportation of teams to various playing fields. Senior students at St. Andrew's Seminary are expected to serve as umpires. The four league pennant winners will vie for the championship trophy in a playoff series.

Sponsoring the league are the Rochester Deaneary Holy Name Society, the Rochester Police Holy Name Society and the Rochester Firemen Holy Name Society.

Film on Saint Booked Sunday

"St. Francis of Assisi," a motion picture produced recently by a Mexican company, will be shown again next Sunday, April 18, in two performances, at St. Francis of Assisi Hall.

The first showing will be at 2 p. m. and the second at 8:30 p. m. The picture was shown last Sunday and those who saw it were so enthusiastic in their praise of it that it was decided to book it for next Sunday as well. It is undoubtedly one of the finest religious productions to yet reach the screen, according to the committee in charge.

In a review in the June, 1947 issue of the Pastoralist monthly, The Sign, Jerry Cotter stated: "From Mexico comes a reverent and inspiring biographical study, St. Francis of Assisi, which is not only a dignified tribute to the great saint but an unusually fine motion picture in the bargain. The Spanish dialogue is supplemented with English titles; the photography, direction, and action are excellent."

Ball League For Sodality

Planning the second year of the Sodality Baseball League, members of the Sodality are organizing teams in the parishes, according to Michael Amico who successfully steered the league's activities last year.

Purpose of the league is not only to foster sound and wholesome athletics but to offer a means for getting together for sociability, and to make new friends.

Any young man can take charge and form his own team in his parish, according to Amico. He asks these managers to contact him at 64 Mohawk St., Stone 3880-X as soon as possible to make possible drawing up a schedule.

Card Fete Set At St. Michael's

St. John Ladies' Auxiliary 286, Knights of St. John, will hold a card party Wednesday evening, Apr. 28 in St. Michael's Hall.

Miss Helen Kehrig is chairman of the affair and honorary co-chairman is Mrs. Clara Schoenberger.
