Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Sister M Guncheon, and the Misses Nancy Perpetua Egan of the Congrega tion of the Sisters of Saint Jo seph, who died at Nazareth Con vent, Pittsford, on April 16,1948. were conducted at Nazareth Con vent-Monday-morning,-April 19.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Roy B. Aornhy, assisted by the Re seph Natale as Deacon and the Rev. Francis J. Pegnam as Subdeacon. The Rev. Edward J Lintz was Master of Ceremonies, and present in the sanctuary were also the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell and the Rev. Louis Edelman. The last blessing at the grave was given by Father Gefell, assisted by Eather Morphy.
Sister Perpetua was born in

Lima and lived there until her entrance into religious life. As a Sister of Saint Joseph, she served as housekeeper in several convents in the diocese, having spent a long period of time at Corpus Christi convent in Rochester before returning to Nazareth Convent.

Sister had also been missioned at the convents in Ithaca and Scheca Falls, at St. Francis de Sales Concent in Geneva and St. Patrick's Convent in Dansville, at Nazareth Hall and Saint Agnes Institute in Rochester, as well as at Saint Joseph's Asylum in Auburn at its opening in 1887, and later at Saint Mary's Asylum in Rochester.

Sister Perpetua was in the 72d year of her religious life. Surviving are many nieces and nephevis in Rochester and vicinity, in Chicago and California.
