Bishop Pleads For Missions

A call for mission vocations comes from His Excellency, Bishop Kearney in an appeal featured in Field Ajar, Maryknoll publication.

The Bishop is quoted as follows:

"Interest in the missions must now go beyond the traditional service of prayer, organization, financial support, and must concern itself with the present crucial situation, which demands personal service, which requires more and more mission vocations. These must come from our Catholic schools and colleges, from our parish clubs and socialities. This is America's hour."

500 Holy Name Men to Attend Elmira Meeting

Approximately 500 delegates from the more than 100 Holy Name Societies in the diocese are expected to attend the 15th annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union on Sunday, May 16, in Elmira.

A nationally-known lay speaker will address the convocation, which will open promptly at 9 p. m. in St. Mary's Church Hall, Franklin Street. Ways and means of making Holy Name units more effective proponents of Catholic principles in today's pagan world will be the theme of the business sessions, which will be closed with Benediction.

Arrangements are being made for a buffet supper immediately following Benediction, to which delegates are invited to bring their wives.

Considerable interest has been evidenced in this year's convention, according to Lewis A. Schur, Diocesan Union president, who pointed out that methods
