Franciscan To Study Under Jesuits in India

One of five Third Order Regular Franciscans to volunteer for the India mission field, William F. Butler 3d, of 697 Post Ave. is enroute to Calcutta, India to complete his studies for the priesthood under the Jesuit Fathers.

Known in Religion as Brother Ignatius, he sailed Saturday on the Long View Victory, a freighter, with first scheduled stop at Alexandria, Egypt. Four weeks will complete the journey.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Butler, Brother Ignatius is enrolled at St. Albert's Seminary, Ranchi, for two years' work for his college degree and to continue until his finishes his course in philosophy and theology.

The young Franciscan received his grammar school training under the Franciscan Sisters at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, Rochester. He attended Aquinas Institute until he entered the Third Order Regular Franciscans at Loretto, Pa. March 1, 1945.

After three months he was graduated from St. Francis Preparatory School at Loretto and was received into the Sacred Heart Novitiate. He pronounced his first vows July 9, 1946. From then until sailing, Brother Ignatius was a student at St. Francis College. Like his father, a former city editor, the young man has a flair for journalism and has written for school and religious publications.

Mt. Read Church Lists HNS Rite

Reception of men into the Holy Name and Men's Club of Mother of Sorrows Church, Mt. Read Boulevard, will take place in an impressive ceremony, Sunday, May 23, at the 10 a. m. Mass, according to the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke, pastor.

The first meeting of the Club brought an enthusiastic response and the school hall was filled. John Murphy opened the meeting and brought the men up to date on the matters treated in caucus.

General approval was accorded the suggestion that selection of committee heads be left to the judgment of the permanent officers, who will be elected at a meeting May 21.

Following nominating committee was chosen: Brian Hayes, chairman, Thomas Begley, Jacob Dengler, Lester Feely, Clarence Hogan, Donald Greemwell, Louis Mayer, John Murphy, Wilfred Michaud, Edward McShea, Joseph Pickens, Robert Roy and John Zurowski.

Father O'Rourke pastor, spoke briefly to the men of the tremendous influence such an organization can have on the spiritual life of the parish. Children who regularly see their fathers approach the Communion rail in great numbers, he said, will undoubtedly gain a new respect for their faith and religious practices.

Rev. Edward J. Foy, spiritual advisor, congratulated the men on their enthusiasm and outlined the aims and purposes of the society.

Holy Name Paper Campaign Enrolls 7 More Parishes

Parishioners of seven city churches have been requested to bring old newspapers and magazines to the school halls before noon this Saturday, May 1, as the campaign being conducted by the Rochester Deanery Holy Name Society enters its fourth week.

Parishes in this week's drive are: Corpus Christi, Irving Smith, chairman; St. Augustine, Mark Tuohey; St. Andrew, Walter Berl; St. Francis Xavier, Jack Achille and Anthony DiChesere; St. Stanislaus, William Wilko; St. George, Joseph Brown; Annunciation, Peter Cappelino.

Continued excellent response in the campaign is reported by Arthur P. Farren, Holy Name executive secretary. Highlighting the drive on Apr. 24, he said, were the efforts of Holy Name men in Holy Family, SS. Peter & Paul and Immaculate Conception parishes, all of whom turned in much more paper than had been expected. Particularly noteworthy was the result in Holy Family parish under Chairman Robert Zimmer.

TOP TOTALS in the campaign thus far have been made by Sacred Heart, Holy Rosary and Holy Family. Their ranking will be threatened by men of the Blessed Sacrament Holy Name Society, who on May 8 will conduct a street-by-street curb pick-up throughout the parish under the chairmanship of Murtagh P Murphy. Murphy said his men will endeavor to reach a total of 40 tons.

Participating in the drive on Apr. 24 were Holy Family; SS. Peter & Paul, Lawrence Savage, chairman; Immaculate Conception, Philip Schneider; Holy Apostles, Frank J. Thomas; St. aPtrick, Arthur Zona; St. Anthony, Annibale Picciocchi; St. Lucy, Anthony Lippa, and Holy Ghost, Arthur Breiner.

Proceeds from the drive, which will continue through June 19, will be used to provide for services through the new Holy Name central office. Parishes in towns of Monroe County are scheduled to take part in the campaign on May 15.
