Nazareth Art Exhibit Open To Public Sunday Afternoon

Exhibitions of the work of Senior Art students of Nazareth College are scheduled for this Friday (May 14) and Sunday (May 16) in the College's art department.

A private exhibition and reception will be held Friday evening from 7 to 9:30 p. m.

The general public is invited to view the exhibition in the art department on Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

Students whose work is included in the exhibition are Mary Ellen Trescott of East Rochester and Mary Betty Keegan of Buffalo. Both are preparing to be public school art teachers.

Allene O'Dea of Rochester, first student to take the college's course in interior decoration, will also have her work represented in the exhibition.

ism in the United States, he said: "Our greatest danger is not the anti-God spirit of Communism but our own spirit of Godlessness."

The Rev. Donald Lux, assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church, was named chaplain of the Firemen's Holy Name Society and was presented a badge by Deputy Chief James G. Murray, chairman of the breakfast.

Other officers elected for the coming year are: John Ragan, president, and Erwin Murphy, vice-president. Edward Moyer was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Guest speakers were presented by William A. Lang, former deputy commissioner of public safety, as toastmaster.

Guests included Vice-mayor Frank E. VanLare and the firemen were led by Chief John A. Slattery.

Fr. Donald Lux Named Chaplain Of Firemen's HNS

Fulfillment of their duties as firemen was lauded and importance of fulfilling their duties as Catholic laymen was stressed at the eighth annual Firemen's Holy Name Society Communion Breakfast, Sunday, in Hotel Seneca.

Public patience to avoid irresponsible criticism of public services was urged by His Excellency Bishop Kearney, who celebrated the Mass at St. Joseph's Church where the firemen received Holy Communion in a body.

The Bishop thanked the firemen for protecting the institutions as he cited their effective citywide protection from fire.

Communism has triumphed not because it is right but because we are weak, spiritually weak, the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, diocesan director of Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union declared in urging the firemen to increased spiritual activity.

Kuebel Couple To Mark Jubilee

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kuebel of Lake Road, Webster, will be commemorated with High Mass at 9 o'clock on Saturday, May 8 at St. Salome's Church.

The Rev. Edward Eschrich, pastor, will celebrate the Mass. A reception will be held in the home of their son Mathias J. Kuebel, 43 Linden Street, Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuebel were married at St. Peter and Paul's Church, Rochester, by the late Rev. Mathias J. Hargather, brother of Mrs. Kuebel. They were members of that parish for many years before moving to their present home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuebel have six children: Mrs. Norman Brugger, Mathias J. Kuebel, Mrs. Jacob Schmitt, Mrs. Frank Engert, Edward F. Kuebel and Mrs. Herbert Buell and fourteen grandchildren.
