In addition there are scheduled some mystifying tricks by Ken Punnett the Magician. His performance will be watched closely by the Red Wing guests who are anxious to find some means of climbing out of the International League cellar.

School Loop Season Opens With High Scoring Spree

Opening game "jitters" produced a high scoring spree Tuesday, May 4, among the 24 teams in the Holy Name Parochial School Softball League, with a liberal number of home runs, walks and errors marking the initial scraps.

All teams have games scheduled at 4 p. m. Friday, May 7, and every Tuesday and Friday for the next four weeks.

Only one game, the St. Ambrose-St. Francis Xavier tussle, was postponed on opening day, because of the death of Sister Mary Tatiana of the Sisters of St. Joseph, eighth grade teacher at St. Francis. The game will be played at 4 p. m. Monday at No. 27 school.

Among home run clouters in the opener were Gugliata of St. Lucy's, Farnan of St. Margaret Mary's, Lapple, Bellardi and Paolito of St. Michael's, Petralia of Holy Family and Marlanetti of Holy Rosary. Tuesday's scores: DIVISION 1-Holy Rosary 24, Sacred Heart 12; Nazareth Hall 20, St. Bridget 6; St. Margaret Mary 20, St. Thomas 6. DIVISION 2-Holy Redeemer 15, Perpetual Help 5; St. Andrew 29, St. Michael 14. St. 29, St. Anthony 6. DIVISION 3-St. Anthony a Holy Family 6; St. Lucy 14, St. Augustine 13; Holy Apostles 9, St. Monica 7. DIVISION 4-Corpus Christi 15, Blessed Sacrament 1; St. Boniface 11, St. John Evangelist 7.

Senior students of St. Andrew's Seminary, under direction of Frank Della Villa, are handling the umpire duties. He explained that runners can advance only one base on an overthrow of a ball which leaves the playing field, but that he cannot score from third base on such an overthrow. Team directors will receive a complete schedule soon, according to John T. Nothnagle and Art Farrer, league directors.
