ing that God stop infringing on our public school curricula; angrily protesting that Christ has been seen walking in public school corridors; insisting that our tax-supporting public school system be protected from the intrusion of the heathens on the Mount.

ed the Rev. Francis B. Burns, professor of moral theology at St. Bernard's Seminary, and W. H. O'Neill, who spoke for the parish trustees.

BISHOP KEARNEY consecrated the new central altar at St. Mary's Church on Monday morning and the celebrated a Mass in memory of Father Morality. Assisting the Bishop in the consecrating service were his secretary, the Rev. Dr. John E. Maney, Father Toole, pastor, and the Reverend Fathers James C. Lane and Leo J. Lynch, assistant pastors.

Chanters were the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti of St. Anthony's Church, the Rev. John S. Maloney, spiritual director of St. Bernard's Seminary, and the Rev. James Nolan of St. Augustine, Florida. Father Maloney, Father Nolan and the Rev. Donald Murphy of the Aquinas Institute faculty, Rochester, are former members of the parish who returned for the Jubilee Week.

Jubilee Week ceremonies were opened Sunday, May 2, with 500 women of the Altar Rosary Society receiving Holy Communion. On Sunday night Bishop Kearney administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of 116 children. He commended Father Toole and the parishioners for the work they had done together to build up the church physically and spiritually.

Pupils In Diamond Jubilee Operetta

Elmira's St. Mary's school pupils are presenting the operetta, "Kathleen" as part of the parish's diamond jubilee. Players above will be seen tonight and tomorrow night, May 6 and 7, at the Southside High School.

The Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Villa will hold a meeting Tuesday, May 11 at 2 p. m. in St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin Street. Hostesses are Mrs. Lawrence Mayer, Mrs. Walter Maxey and Mrs. Florence Mayhew.

Christ in Social Work Stressed by CDA Speaker

Corning—Miss Marjory Howland, who is engaged in social work in Monroe County, was the guest speaker at the Communion breakfast held Sunday morning by Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America in their rooms.

The breakfast followed corporate Communion at the 8.30 a. m. Mass in St. Patrick's Church. Choosing as her subject, "Christ on a Shoestring," Miss Howland, who is a member of the speakers bureau of Rochester Diocese, National Council of Catholic Women, reviewed the history of social work. She told of the progress made in dealing with the needy and how important it is in her field to adhere to the teachings of Christ.

Miss Howland was introduced by Mrs. Edith Griffin, grand regent. Others seated at the speakers table were: Mrs. C. D. McCarty, chairman of the Board of Trustees; Mrs. Louis Hart, chairman of the house committee, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, general chairman for the breakfast.

Included in the program were a piano duet by Kathleen Ward and Mary Colacechi and solos by Helen Clancy, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Joseph Clancy. Assisting Mrs. Fitzgerald with the breakfast arrangements were Mesdames Louis Hart, C. R. Everett, Charles Goller, Adrian Driscoll, William Nelson, Norman Murray, James Ward, Henry Sorenson, Martin Koebel, John Reilly, William McMahon, Adrian Post and the Misses Mary O'Neill and Lucille O'Neill.

McNeil-Griffin Wedding Announced
Corning—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. McNeil of Elmira entertained Sunday afternoon at their home with a reception at which time the announcement was made of the marriage of Esther L. McNeil, daughter of Mrs. McNeil, to Franklin J. Griffin, son of Mrs. Edith Griffin of Corning, and the late Raymond J. Griffin. The ceremony was performed February 6, 1948, by the Rev. Lawrence Gannon, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Mount Morris.

Attending the couple were Miss Margaret Cronin of Buffalo and Francis Kowand of Corning, cousin of the bridegroom. The bride, a graduate of Southside High School, Elmira, is a senior at Genesee State Teachers' College. Mr. Griffin, a veteran of eighteen months' service with the Navy, is a senior at Alfred University.
