Alhambra Greets National Leader On Caravan Visit

Paying tribute to Musa Caravan as one of the outstanding units in the Order of the Alhambra, Supreme Commander Luz C. Robalin of San Antonio, Texas, installed two of his members as his deputies at a meeting in the Shinton Hotel, Tuesday night.

Supreme Commander Robalin on an official visit of Caravans in this area visited Buffalo, Oswego and Toronto, Canada over the week end.

At the Caravan meeting he installed Deputy Supreme Commander-at-large Otto A. Shultz and Deputy Supreme Commander Emmet J. O'Neill whose district covers Monroe County and Southern Tier.

Presented by Vice Supreme Commander Norman A. O'Brien of Rochester, the national leader of the Alhambra called for public demonstration of faith to combat all subversive "isms."

He recalled that the Alhambra ritual is based on the triumph of Christianity over Mohammedanism and said current Alhambra members should combat all "isms" because while absent and strychnine are not the same they are both poison.

AN EXAMPLE of public demonstration of faith he told of a sunrise Mass in Houston, Texas sponsored by San Jacinto Caravan of that city at which a Bishop and 52 priests offered Mass simultaneously in St. Thomas High School Stadium packed with 15,000 persons.

Due in Albany Sunday the Supreme Commander and his staff will attend a Communion Mass and Breakfast of Vega

William Amann Wins Oratorical Contest

William Amann, 547 Linden Street, Rochester, the son of Anthony Amann, won the first prize in the annual public speaking contests of the Basselin Foundation of the Catholic University of America in Washington. He was presented with a certificate and a plaque by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward B. Jordan, the rector of the University.

MF Amann is a student in the Basselin Foundation, an integral part of the University, which provides a special course of studies for young men preparing for the Catholic priesthood.

Caravan. He will return to Texas in June.

Grand Commander Nelson E. Owen presided. The Caravan is owned by G. and Knight John J. Kinney of support of the coming State R of C convention.

Joyce Kilmer Club Slates Father Keller at Breakfast
