Elaine Kolesnik Chosen Nazareth College Queen

Pageantry and color marked the traditional Nazareth College May Day celebration in honor of Our Lady when Miss Elaine Kolesnik, president of the Undergraduate Association, was crowned May Queen and crowned the Blessed Virgin in ceremonies Wednesday afternoon.

Following celebration of Mass at 9 a. m. by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, the four classes assembled for the pilgrimage to the four class shrines.

A poetic theme depicting the Blessed Virgin in the history of the Church was carried in each of the shrines, the first representing the palms of the Old Testament, the second showing a scene from the early Church, the third, the medieval Church, and the fourth, the twentieth century.

CLIMAXING the pilgrimage was the journey to the Sodality shrine which represented Our Lady of Fatima. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at an outdoor altar closed the morning program.

In the afternoon, the coronation of the May Queen, the regalia procession and the May Pole Dance took place. Senior attendants to Miss Kolesnik were Miss Mary Ellen Prescott and Miss Margaret Ely.

The Edna St. Vincent Millay play, "The Princess Marries the Page" was presented later with the following cast, the Misses Betty White, as the princess; Mary Kay Donovan, the page; Margaret Snyder, the king; Marie Amatusio, the chancelor; and Francis Springer, Virginia Steinwachs and Helen O'Neill as soldiers.

Miss Sue Wigg was in charge of costumes and properties were handled by Miss Virginia Davis.

Committees working behind the scenes were as follows: Honorary Chairman, Mary Kay O'Sullivan; Spiritual Program, Mary Hope; Reception, Elaine Kolesnik; Florances, Monica Hurley; General Chairman, Dawn Dillon; Decorations, Rita O'Neill; Procession,

Sodalists To Get Plenary Indulgences

A plenary indulgence for those enrolled in the Sodality of Our Lady affiliated with the Prima Primaria and who fulfill the usual requirements has been approved and promulgated by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney for this diocese on Trinity Sunday, May 23.

In announcing the plenary indulgence, the Rev. Bob B. Murphy, diocesan director of Sodality, originally scheduled for Sunday, May 23, has been postponed to the early fall when a huge Sodality two-day convention will be held in Rochester.

The Convention will embrace all Sodalities of the diocese. Present will be nationally known Sodality and Youth organization leaders. Planned are a Sodality ball and banquet. A committee made up of the Parish and School Sodality Unions in this diocese will meet in June to complete arrangements.

The Plenary Indulgence to be gained on Trinity Sunday was granted by His Holiness Pope Pius XII for seven years to mark World Sodality Day. Requirements are confession and reception of Holy Communion, renewal of act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary and praying for the Pope's intention.
