Fr. Jankowiak Honored By Geneva Rosary Group

Honoring their moderator, Rev. Valentine Jankowiak, on his tenth anniversary, the Rosary Society of St. Francis de Sales church presented him a gold chalice Friday. The presentation was made during the annual Communion breakfast of the society at Club 86. There were 180 women present. Miss Marion Whelan, visiting nurse, was guest speaker.

Father Jankowiak's tenth anniversary of his ordination will not be celebrated until June. The anniversary gift presented, yesterday, was a complete surprise to him. "It's the nicest gift a priest could receive," he said, expressing his gratitude to the members.

Describing the history of public nursing and the work of the visiting nurse in particular, Miss Whelan, the guest speaker, related the beginning of nursing in England. It was in 1534, in New York City in 1900 and its progress down through the years.

THE VISITING NURSE appealed to society members for active cooperation in the local program.

Preceding the breakfast, the members attended Mass and received Holy Communion at St. Francis de Sales church. Later they went to Club 86.

Father Jankowiak delivered the invocation at the breakfast. The president, Mrs. Ivan Haines, welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Thomas A. Kane, toastmistress, gave a colorful account of the society activities in the early days. She told about the social events of the organization sixty-one years ago when she came to Geneva. She has been church organist for that length of time.

Marriage Course Report For NCCW

Auburn—Eighty-nine men and women attended the recent course of lectures on marriage held at the Catholic Daughters' Home under the sponsorship of the NCCW, the Rev. E. Leo McManus, deanery moderator, announced this week in summarizing the results of the new endeavor.

"Twelve married couples and seventeen engaged couples came each week," Father McManus said, "and there were thirty-one individuals, either married or already engaged who attended. We feel that this series of lectures was helpful and inspiring."

Citing some written comments made by couples at the close of the course, Father McManus demonstrated the impression the lectures had produced.

"One husband wrote: 'I believe that lectures of this type should be a must for engaged couples. So many people enter marriage with such little knowledge of the physiological and psychological side of living together.' An engaged woman wrote: 'I had never realized before so many points of relationship between God and marriage. We need to be reminded of God's part in every marriage.'"

Sermon by Father Cuddy, Ex-Chaplain, Set for Auburn's Memorial Field Mass

Auburn—Plans for the Eighth Annual Military Field Mass, honoring veterans buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery, were completed at a meeting held last Sunday in the K. of C. Home.

According to John J. Mohan, president Memorial Military Mass Committee, and Stephen H. Baker, secretary.

The Mass will be held at 9:00 o'clock Monday, May 31, which is being observed as Memorial Day this year.

Rev. Paul Cuddy, former Army chaplain and at present chaplain of Sampson College, Geneva, will deliver the sermon.

The committee directly responsible for arrangements comprises members of Holy Name Societies of all Roman Catholic churches in Auburn.

A platform will be erected on west side of the cemetery. A canopy will be placed over the outdoor altar. By means of a loudspeaker the service will be carried so that all of the several hundred who each year attend, may hear the speaker. The male choir will be directed by Gerald T. Conroy, organist and choir director of St. Mary's Church.

Joseph J. Hickey, William H. Brennan and Francis Murphy will supervise the erection of the platform. Charles M. Sullivan and Francis C. Marshall will have charge of the color display and picking the firing squad and buglers, and Patsy Russo will be in charge of transporting equipment.

Delegations representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Catholic War Veterans, Italian-American War Veterans and American Legion will be present.

Protestant Hails Catholics For Speeding DP Measure

Cincinnati—(NCI)—Credit for "breaking the log-jam" in Congress in regard to Displaced Persons legislation" was given to the National Catholic Resettlement Council by Charles P. Taft, Cincinnati lawyer who is president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Speaking at a meeting here of 40 diocesan directors of the Council, which was informed in January to survey job and housing opportunities in the U. S. for European DPs, Mr. Taft said that "it is outrageous for any American to talk about bringing Displaced Persons into this country."

After the conference Msgr. Edward E. Swanson, of New York, who heads the Council, told reporters that "it is quite evident that the present session of Congress will pass some legislation admitting a fair number of Displaced Persons to the United States."

He said that the Fellows Bill, which is the more liberal of two under present consideration, would admit 200,000 Displaced Persons during the next two years. He also declared that several thousands of homes and jobs available on farms and in small towns in the State of Ohio.

In his address Mr. Taft paid tribute to Bishop Michael J. Ruddy, of Columbus and Msgr. Howard J. Carroll, former and current general secretaries of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, with whom he worked during the war years.

North Dakota Newspapers Shun Anti-Garb Measure

Fargo, N. D.—(RNS)—North Dakota newspapers were charged here with a "virtual conspiracy of silence" on the anti-garb issue by the Rev. C. A. Armstrong, secretary of the North Dakota Interchurch Council.

An anti-garb referendum which comes before voters in June would bar persons wearing religious dresses from teaching in the public schools. If passed it would affect 72 Catholic nuns employed in rural and small town schools.

According to Mr. Armstrong, press silence on the subject began with an editorial in the Fargo Forum, which declared that the referendum campaign would make for bitter feeling between neighbors, and that the Forum would not contribute to the discussion.

The anti-garb pamphlets are sponsored by the North Dakota committee for Separation of Church and State which initiated the referendum movement.

Several other daily and weekly newspapers. Most North Dakota radio stations were reported to have joined newspapers in avoiding the controversy.

The Fargo Forum, when informed of Mr. Armstrong's charge, replied that its stand was taken to avoid emotional discussion of the issue, including letters to the editors from proponents of either side.

Forum editors said the paper printed a news story regarding the start of the anti-garb campaign, on account of the filing of petitions to place the issue on the ballot, and the statement of the Roman Catholic bishops made after the filing of petitions.

The anti-garb pamphlets are sponsored by the North Dakota committee for Separation of Church and State which initiated the referendum movement.

Spanish Red Vets Reported Held in Siberian Comps

Fargo—Charges that Spanish "loyalist" refugees are being held and mistreated in a Soviet concentration camp in Siberia have been made in the official organ of the Socialist Party in France, Le Populaire.

An article in the paper, which is directed by Leon Blum, said veterans of the Spanish Red Army and navy, refugees on Russian soil since 1937 have been victims of persecution and banishment by the Soviet secret police since 1941.

Written by Andre Fontain, regular correspondent of the socialist journal, the article states that at present 57 of these veterans of the Spanish Red forces, among them 24 aviators and 33 sailors, are known to be detained in the Karaganda concentration camp in South Siberia, near Lake Balkash. The region is known as the "Steppes of Hunger."

The Federation of Spanish Deportees has requested an explanation from Soviet authorities, but has received no reply. The Federation has now appealed to the United Nations in the effort to secure an explanation from the Soviet Government.

Le Populaire states that at the end of the civil war in Spain, 64 student pilots of the Spanish republican army went to Russia and found there hundreds of sailors who had conveyed Spanish children refugees. In 1941, when war between Russia and Germany began, the Spanish aviators and sailors, the article says, were placed in the Karaganda camp, where they found 900 other Spaniards.

Many have died and on one occasion when a number of them refused to work they were compelled to remain three hours under guard in the open air at a temperature of 50 degrees below zero, the article states.

The names of many of these Spanish deportees are known, the writer states, and in all cases, they are known to be Spanish republicans.

Tercentenary Prayers To Martyr Urged

Dubuque, Iowa (NCI)—The Most Rev. Francis J. L. Beckman, retired archbishop of Dubuque, has issued a call for a tridium of prayer in North America in preparation for the tercentenary celebration on July 4 of the martyrdom of St. Anthony Daniel, Jesuit missionary to the Indians.

The High School pilgrimages to North American shrines, sponsored by the Confraternity of Pilgrims, whose spiritual director is Archbishop Beckman, will visit St. Anthony Daniel's shrine on July 4 anniversary of his martyrdom. The oldest shrine in North America. It is situated at Fort St. Marie, near Midland, Ontario.

He delivered the sermon at the Solemn Pontifical Mass in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul, in honor of the centenary anniversary of the arrival of the Christian Brothers in the United States. His Eminence Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia offered the Mass.

Baptists Fight Tax Move Memphis, Tenn. (RNS)—Opposition to any curtailment of tax exemption privileges for religious non profit institutions was expressed here in a resolution adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention.
