Prelates Laud Charity Ladies Work in Elmira

The great work carried on by the Ladies of Charity in Elmira brought praise from the Rt. Rev. Magr. Eugene A. Loftus of Buffalo speaking to 200 members at the Mark Twain Hotel, Sunday morning.

Monsignor Loftus who is executive director of the Catholic Charities in Buffalo was heard at the eighth annual Communion Breakfast of the group.

The group had previously attended Mass and received Holy Communion in Our Lady of Lourdes Church where His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester after celebrating the Mass had conducted affiliation ceremonies for 27 new members.

At the eighth annual Communion Breakfast of Elmira Ladies of Charity Sunday in Mark Twain Hotel, His Excellency Bishop James E. Kearney of Rochester (center) and Monsignor Eugene A. Loftus, Buffalo, commended the organization headed by Mrs. John F. McCormack, president.

Alumnae Plan Cana Conference

Auburn—Second in a series of Cana Conferences, sponsored by Nazareth College Alumnae, Auburn Chapter, was held Sunday, May 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vail. Rev. Robert Dobbertin, assistant pastor at St. Alphonsus Church, directed the Conference.

Father Dobbertin outlined the qualities essential to a good husband and a good wife; namely, seriousness and a sense of responsibility, in the man, modesty and a love of the home in the woman plus a religious spirit in both.

The conference closed with the Rosary and the Renewal of the Marriage Vows by the eleven

"CHARITY IS eternal—Charity is Perennial," Monsignor Loftus told the Ladies and urged their organization to be ready to take on any new projects which may come up.

The Buffalo prelate spoke, especially of the work which the Ladies of Charity are doing at St. Joseph's Hospital, visiting the sick and taking complete charge of issuing passes to hospital visitors.

The members all got together to plan picnics, which was the popular pastime in that day.

The women cranked the ice-cream freezer to make a dessert for the occasion," she said. "Now we can come in and sit down to a dinner all prepared for us."

50,000 In Hungary Nursing Sisters Ousted From Slovenia Hospitals

Budapest (NC)—Fifty thousand Hungarians, gathered for an open-air Mass, gave an overwhelming demonstration of their loyalty to the Church and to His Eminence Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, who told them that the Catholic faith and a pure, Christian family life are the only safe bases of genuine Hungarian patriotism.

Hungary today needs more than ever "the Divine Commandments without which the lives of the individual, family, nation and entire humanity are beset by uncertainty and trouble," the Cardinal said. "Hungarians need the force of the Sacraments that keeps them on the path of just laws and order."

Trieste (NC)—The communistic government of the "Peoples Republic of Slovenia" has forced all the nursing Sisters, numbering about 200, to leave their hospitals posts, turning them out into the street on few hours' notice without any pension or other provision for their future.

Newspapers here about the expulsion of the Sisters depicts the brutality with which it was carried out. In one hospital the commissar told the nuns at nine o'clock in the morning to "get out" by one o'clock in the afternoon.
