C.S.C. Priest's First Mass Set In Bath Church

Bath—The Rev. Robert J. Fagan, C.S.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Fagan, of 8 Rumsey Street, will celebrate his first Mass in St. Mary's Church, Bath, at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, June 6.

Father Fagan, a member of the Congregation of Holy Cross, was ordained Wednesday, June 2, at Holy Cross College, Washington, D. C. by the Most Rev. Patrick Boyle, Archbishop of Washington.

A native of Bath and a graduate of Koberling High School, the new priest received his degree at Notre Dame University before entering the Holy Cross seminary. While at Notre Dame where his brothers, Bernard and Edward Fagan, were also students, Father Fagan was a member of the Student Council and was active in numerous other campus organizations.

The Rev. Henry C. Maney, pastor of St. Mary's, will be assistant priest for Father Fagan's first Mass and will preach the sermon. The Rev. Arthur A. LeMay will be Deacon and the Rev. John Cotteran, C.S.C., of Washington will be subdeacon at the Mass. Brother Meinrad, C.S.C., will be the master of ceremonies.

Mr. James Fagan, father of the newly ordained priest, is a trustee of St. Mary's Church.

Ordained Bishop Appointed For Providence

FR. E. J. FAGAN

Bishop-elect McVinney was ordained at Louvain by Archbishop John Gregory Murray of St. Paul, July 13, 1924. This followed studies at St. Charles College, Catonsville, Md., the Seminaire de Philosophie, Montreal; St. Bernard's, Rochester, and the American College at Louvain, Belgium.

He has held several offices in the diocesan curia. He has been a synodical examiner, secretary for junior clergy on the diocesan examining board, and an examiner in canon law.

The Buffalo delegation on each journey will be under the personal leadership of a Spiritual Director and will be accompanied also by experienced travel escorts. Reservations and inquiries on the Inaugural California Mission Tours are being handled by American Express - Catholic Travel League, whose Buffalo offices are located at 20 N. Division St.

Conroy Chosen 'Ideal Bonaventure Man'

St. Bonaventure, N. Y. — Robert C. Conroy, 167 Burton St., Rochester, was chosen "The Ideal Bonaventure Man" in a recent general student election. It was announced today by the Student Senate and faculty of St. Bonaventure College. The traditional choice is made by the students of the senior who best measure up to the character profile of the Bonaventure Man which is printed in the student rule book.

Coming to St. Bonaventure in September 1942, R. J., as he is usually called, left school for duty with the Signal Corps in March 1943. He served with the army until late in 1945, spending a good deal of that time in the European Theater of Operations.

Student Senator, President of the Rochester Club, President of the Junior Class, Co-chairman of the Junior Prom in 1947 and active member of the BBX are positions that Bob has accepted gladly and in which he has served Bon students.

Teen-Agers Enjoy Party

Penn Yan — Last teen agers party of the school year was held in Saint Michael's Hall, Penn Yan, Wednesday. The theme of the party was the "Seniors Serenade" and the evening took the form of a farewell to all seniors.

Program consisted of dancing, talent contests and refreshments. Warner Bush and his orchestra provided the music.

A large delegation from Watkins Glen, headed by Rev. Daniel V. Hogan joined the group for the evening. Rev. Thomas C. Kane of Seneca Falls and Rev. Joseph C. McDonnell of Hammondsport also brought groups of teen agers to the dance.
