Kinney Heads KC For 2nd Term

John J. Kinney of St. Ambrose parish will take over as grand knight of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus for his second term on July 1. He was re-elected at the annual meeting held last Thursday in K. of C. Clubrooms, Columbus Civic Center.

Newly elected to office were Chancellor Edward M. Stelly; Advocate Eugene R. Cusker; Inside Guard John R. McMahon and Outside Guard Edward M. Wegel, Jr.

Re-elected were Deputy Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary; Recorder Francis J. Brennan; Treasurer, John R. Ward, Jr.; warden, Joseph B. Rooney; trustee for three years, Robert F. Rauber.

Delegates to the state convention are Grand Knight Kinney and District Deputy Francis T. Toomey; alternates, Thomas H. O'Connor and Leo F. Rombout, past grand knights.

Named to represent the council at the Central New York Chapter meeting were Cusker, Nary, Rocco F. Natale and Richard A. Seaton. Alternates are George J. Hinch, Michael J. Schopp, Carlton J. Servas, William D. Staub, and John R. Ward, Jr.

The newly elected grand knight appointed Natale chairman of the house committee and Schopp lecturer, to succeed themselves.

Chaplain Heindl Has First Communion Class

First Holy Communion for the children of military personnel stationed at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., was held on Sunday May 16, 1948. Chaplain (Major) E. W. Heindl, Catholic chaplain of Aberdeen Proving Ground and priest of Rochester Diocese, celebrated the Mass in the Catholic chapel.

The children, dressed in traditional white dresses and suits, presented a beautiful sight in the chapel which has been assigned to the Catholic chapel. The altars were gaily decorated with flowers for the occasion and the organ was played by First Lieut. Doris Jensen, ANC of the Station Hospital at Aberdeen.

Priest Wins Libel Suit Against Red Newspapers

Home—Radio, N. C. Magistrate Robert H. Roberts, secretary of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office, won his defamation suit against the director of L. Italia, organ of the Communist party here, for its April 15 attack accusing him of financial swindles. The defendant, Antonio Imaichi, was sentenced to 20 months in prison, a fine of 250,000 lire and court costs.

Geneva Couple Observes Jubilee

Geneva, Mich. and Mrs. Dominick Passalacqua, of 319 North Geneva street, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday May 30, with party at D's Hall. About 150 guests attended. A buffet luncheon was served after which dance music was provided by "The Gondoliers." Mrs. Charles Puffer sang a few selections in honor of the occasion, followed by Louis DePillo, who sang two solos. A comic solo was rendered by Francis P. Vitolo of Rochester.

Attend Church Opening

London, N. C. An 86-year-old priest saw his priest son's church opened among coal miners' homes in Blountville, Northumberland. The opening of the church was the result of several years' efforts by the Rev. Leo Hart, pastor of St. Cuthbert's, Ambler, Mich. miles away.

K.C. Program Set On Ithaca's WHCU

Ithaca. The first of a series of six programs, dramatically re-constructing the "Foundations of Our American Ideals," will be heard Tuesday, June 15, at 7:15 p. m. over Station WHCU-FM, 97.3 on FM dial. The programs are a presentation of the Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus, and are sponsored in this area by Ithaca Council, No. 277.

Into the six 15-minute sketches have been packed the high spots of man's centuries-long struggle to win and hold the freedom so many Americans take for granted.

"The writing of the greatest charter for freedom and the founding of the American Republic came about only after 2,000 years of slow and frequent interrupted progress," said Grand Knight Francis Egan, who arranged for the broadcasts. "We are presenting these radio programs," he continued, "in the hope that they may contribute to an increased vigilance against the parasites who threaten the protection of freedom while they gnaw at the foundations of the American Way that shelters them."

Long historical research went into the preparation of "Foundations of Our American Ideals" and the dramatic situations are authentic as well as tense and thrilling.

30 Years of Health Work Draws Praise For Leader

Joseph P. MacSweeney, only charter member of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County who has served the association continuously throughout its more than thirty years, was elected president for the annual meeting of the group on Thursday, June 3.

Mr. MacSweeney, a leading layman, is a communicant at St. Monica's Church. Always interested in the people and their welfare, the Tuberculosis and Health Association is but one of the many organizations serving the public with which he has been affiliated during the past many years.

Among the groups attending the annual meeting was the Junior Health Committee of the Association, its youngest and newest committee. The Committee is composed of high school Juniors and seniors representing eighteen Catholic, public and private schools in Rochester, Iron-quoit and Brighton.

Following Mr. MacSweeney's election last Thursday, Anne Taylor, a charter member and chairman of the Junior Health Committee, spending in the name of all, wished him many happy years and spoke of the enviable record which he has made. She expressed the hope that among the Junior Health members there might be some who one day might say they had served as long and as well as he.

Members of the Junior Health Committee attending Catholic schools are George Christ of Aquinas Institute, Anita Connors and Norma Derleth, St. Ignace.

Catholic Prisoners Said Lax In Faith

London (NC) Only about 25 to 30 per cent of Catholic prisoners of war still in Britain are now practicing their faith, Heinrich Spieker of the Duesseeldorf Christian Democrat newspaper Rheinische Post said here.

Spieker, who has just completed a lecture tour of prisoner-of-war camps in southern England, added that at the end of the war the POW chapels were nearly always filled but now some chapels have a congregation of only one or two on Sundays. This was due, he said, to the fact that most of the anti-Nazi Germans many of whom are Catholics have now been repatriated and very few religious-minded prisoners remain.
