Marble Champ

Robert Peasler, 11, fifth grade pupil in St. Anthony's parish school, Dubuque, is representative for the U. S. Army at the national marble tournament in early June, at Salt Lake City, Utah. Robert arrived 15 minutes too late to participate in the VFW state contest due to bad flying weather. But Army Air Force officials, in cooperation with VFW, have arranged to have Robert represent the entire U. S. Army in the national tournament. St. Anthony's school is mighty proud! (NC Photos.)

Walks 1,000 Miles for You
Paris (NC) A Brittany-born mountain guide named Evens suffered a fall from one of the high Pyrenean mountains severely crippling himself. He made a vow that if he should recover he would make a pilgrimage on foot to the shrine of Sainte Anne d'Auray in his native province. Evens recovered and now has made the pilgrimage—a distance of more than 1,000 miles from his present home, Barges, in the Pyrenees.
