Elmira Catholic Highlights

By ANN REIDY

Farewell Dance Held
Our Lady's Sodality of Elmira Catholic High School held a farewell dance for the seniors last Friday night in the assembly room, with music furnished by the "Lamp-lighters."

The dance was under the direction of the sophomores, with Dolores Moran and John Custic, co-chairmen. The hall was decorated with green and white paper with a large cardboard likeness of a graduate in cap and gown extending from the ceiling.

The dance was rated a huge success by all and especially the seniors who appreciated the sentiment expressed. Among the chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. John Reidy and Miss Lillian and John Cullinan.

Junior Day Held
Last Friday was a big event in the lives of the juniors as they proudly made known their accomplishments as juniors. The highlight of the day was a play prepared by the juniors.

The program consisted of the Hymn to the Sacred Heart by the juniors and seniors, Alma Mater song by the juniors; a speech by Thomas Agan, class president; two songs dedicated to the senior class entitled "The Seniors" and "Bye Bye Seniors." Next followed a one-act play entitled "What a Life" in which the cast participating displayed extraordinary talent. The scene was laid in the principal's office in a large high school one Friday morning in spring.

The cast included Miss Shea, Mr. Bradley's secretary, Patricia Donahue; Mr. Nelson, assistant principal, Thomas Agan; Mr. Patterson, Social Studies teacher, James Murphy; Bill, a student, Robert McGill; Miss Eggleston, a teacher, Joannette Peterson; Mr. Vecchillo, a parent, Norman Hooley; Henry Aldrich, a student, Michael Morgan; Barbara Pearson, a student, Rose Marie Crull; Gerlie, a student, Barbara Gillray; Mr. Brady, principal, Edward Lodico; Miss Wheeler, music teacher, Katherine Carstatter; George Bligow, a student, Peter Fennell; Mrs. Aldrich, Mary Ann Milliken; a detective, James Owens. The program closed with an inspiring talk by Fr. Burns.

College Degrees Conferred on 81

Marie Collins, Virginia Dwyer, Marjorie Esterheld, Doris Incavo, Elaine Kolesnik, Karline Koenen, Arley Mae Lochner, Mary Katherine O'Sullivan.

The gold key, symbol of membership in the Society, and certificates of membership was awarded by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney.

Special recognition was given to Mary Betty Keegan and Mary Ellen Trescott of the Art Department, for the fine mural in local history executed by them for the College during the past year.

The following students who have spent three years at Nazareth College in the Department of Biology, and a fourth year at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, have completed a course in Medical Technology, for which certificates of achievement will now be awarded: Doris Connelly, Elaine Kaib, Jeanette Yoerger.

A special award for excellence in Medical Technology is given by the faculty of St. Joseph's Hospital to Doris Connelly.

The Palladio Award, given to the student who had been most active in promoting the missionary work of the Church went this year to Margaret Ely, president of the Fremlin Mission Unit. Under Miss Ely's leadership, an active program of mission education, prayer, study, and material aid, was successfully promoted during the past year.

The following students in the Department of Sociology were given scholarships to graduate schools of Social Work: Mary Katherine O'Sullivan, Elizabeth Gosling, Marianne Winder.
