Canandaigua—Members of the Rosary Society of St. Mary's Church planned to have the Rev. John B. Kleintjes, assistant pastor, speak to them on his European tour, July 13 and reelected Mrs. Beveride D. Means, president at the June meeting.

Father Kleintjes will show pictures taken on his trip to Portugal and Vatican City and give a full account of his travels.

Scouts who participated were Kathleen Wade, Mary Jo Gretchen, Mary Toomey, Maria Muscato, Jean Salato, Suzanne Ames and Jean Grieve.

Each member at the meeting contributed a new article of infants' clothing to be sent by the National Council of Catholic Women from all affiliated groups to the Holy Father's storehouse for use of the needy in war-torn countries.

Bands of Mrs. Myron Tillema, Mrs. Gertrude Grieve and Miss Mickey D'Agostino served refreshments.

Probate Asks Safety For Holy Land Shrine

Los Angeles—(NC)—Archbishop J. Francis A. McIntyre of Los Angeles has asked that efforts be brought to bear on the opposing forces in Palestine to keep the holy places of Christianity free from harm, saying that "the destruction of these cannot bring blessings or victory."

"Surely the opposing forces must realize," he declared in a statement here, "that no matter how extreme may be the seeming justification, no matter how strained may be the diplomatic relations, no matter how desperate may the contenders consider their plight, their cause cannot be holier than the preservation of the holy places."
