Fr. Gisel Named Chemistry Head At Fordham U.

The Rev. Eugene A. Gisel, S.J., whose home is in Rochester has been appointed head of the Chemistry Department at Fordham University and will report at his new post on June 21.

This was learned when Father Gisel, who during the war was confined in the Philippine Internment camp at Los Banos for more than two years, visited his mother, Mrs. Katherine Gisel, 359 Linden St.

For the past two years, the Jesuit educator has been in charge of chemistry at St. Peter's College, Jersey City, and superior of the Jesuit Faculty House of the College.

A graduate of St. Boniface School and old Cathedral High School, Father Gisel had been ten years in the Philippines at the time of his liberation with the Rev. Leo A. Welch, S.J., from the internment camp.

He had been an instructor in chemistry at the Ateneo in Manila when the city fell to the Japanese.

42 Scouts Receive Altar Awards From Msgr. Shay

Value of the Boy Scout program in stressing religious as well as physical values was hailed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay at an award ceremony Sunday afternoon.

attended by several hundred Catholic Scouts of six area councils.

Monsignor Shay, pastor of Holy Rosary Church, who represented His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, presented "Ad Altare Dei" awards to 42 boys. Bishop Kearney was commencement speaker at Canisius College that afternoon.

The "Ad Altare Dei" cross is earned by Catholic Scouts who serve as altar boys and pass a qualifying examination.

Admonitions to keep Scouting on its high plane and to ignore the program of "crackpot intellectuals" were given by the boys by Monsignor Shay. He also blessed American and troop flags that lined the center aisle. Referring to the national colors, he concluded:

"It's a grand old flag. It represents a lot of work, a lot of tears and a lot of shedding blood. It's up to you to carry on where the rest have left off. Don't let it be trampled on. Stand your ground and defend it, even at the cost of your own life."

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner closed the ceremony. It is sponsored yearly by the Rochester Catholic Diocesan Lay Committee on Scouting, of which Louis A. Langie is general chairman.
