Spaghetti Supper Served
Members of the senior class of Elmira Catholic High School were invited to a spaghetti supper Thursday, June 10, at the home of Miss Josephine Savino. The supper was thoroughly enjoyed by all and spaghetti declared to be the favorite dish of the seniors. After supper all enjoyed music and dancing. After questioning a few of the seniors it was generally conceded to be the end of a perfect day. Senior Day exercises had been held earlier in the afternoon in the Dunn Memorial Auditorium.

Commencement—June 27
The Elmira Catholic High graduation is scheduled for Sunday, June 27, at 3 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church.

Exam Schedules Posted
After the excitement and fun of securing photographs for the yearbooks which were distributed Senior Day, the students returned to serious study with the posting of the exam schedule. Local exams are scheduled to begin Thursday, June 18, with regents beginning the week of the twenty-first.
