Fr. Lord To Mark Silver Jubilee At Montreal School

St. Louis—The Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J., director of the Sodality of Our Lady, will spend the silver jubilee of his ordination working at the Summer School of Catholic Action in Montreal, opening June 28. He was ordained June 27, 1923, by the late Cardinal Glennon.

Father Lord's superiors have granted him a sabbatical biennium for research in the contemporary applications of the 285-year-old Sodality for writing and for work on his radio program, "Ask Father Lord."

One of the most prolific writers of modern times, the Jesuit priest's literary output has been done despite the pressure of administrative duties for the Sodality central publications. During the biennium these duties will be handled by an interim committee. Father Lord will maintain headquarters here.

Father Lord is widely known in Rochester diocese having been at various Sodality functions in the See city and other points in the diocese. He addressed a Sodality of Our Lady conference in

Jubilarian

FR. DANIEL A. LORD
Columbus Civic Center in November 1931.

When the Rochester Parish Sodality Union was being organized, Father Lord spoke at a diocesan convention in May 1933 and attended a public rally here in 1934. He has been heard at Catholic high school sodality meetings and conferences and is widely known to present and former sodalists who attended the many Summer Schools of Catholic Action in recent years.

Freed Slave to Feature Ithaca K.C. Radio Program

Ithaca — The slave who freed himself by uttering one chain-shattering "No!" is the key figure in the second of the "Foundations of Our American Ideals" radio drama series, presented by the Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus. The program, which is sponsored in this locality by Ithaca Council, will be heard Tuesday, June 29, at 7:15 p. m. over Station WHCU.

This second episode in the series is a vivid portrayal of the sub-human status of the slave population in ancient Rome before the spread of Christian teaching "gave manliness back to men."

The overall theme of the series is the direct relationship of American concepts of human rights and liberties to the Christian ideal as it has survived through centuries of tragedy and triumph down to our day.

Each program, while complete in itself, represents a step toward the climax in which it was possible for Thomas Jefferson to write: "We hold it self-evident that all men are created equal." The "Foundations" series reconstructs the historic events which form the background and the basis of Jefferson's immortal phrase.

'Fair' Queen Sets Abdication

Amsterdam, Holland — Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, who has announced she will abdicate in favor of her daughter, Princess Juliana, on September 4 after celebrating her 50th anniversary as Queen on August 30, has earned the gratitude of this country's Catholics. Although the Queen is a member of the Dutch Reformed Church she has been fair and generous in her dealing with her Catholic subjects. On several occasions she has chosen the prime minister for her government from the Catholic party. The present Dutch premier, Lou is Joseph Maria Beel, is a member of the Catholic party.

Catholics well remember Queen Wilhelmina's election when the Most Rev. Jan de Jong, Archbishop of Utrecht, was raised to the Sacred College in December, 1946. When she heard of the prelate's elevation she sent Princess Juliana and Prince-consort Bernhard to Utrecht to congratulate His Eminence. One Catholic party member, Max Von Poll predicts that the Queen will go down in history as Wilhelmina the Great.

Parish Collects Less Than $1

Washington—(NC) — Archbishop Joseph Attilipetty of Verapoly, India, who is winding up a more than seven months' tour in the United States, related that, as director of Catholic Social Action of India, he is attempting to spread the knowledge of Christian social principles in that land of fabulous extremes in wealth and poverty.

Explaining the poverty of his archdiocese, the Archbishop related that Catholics are mostly the poor classes and that the Sunday collection in his largest parish amounts to less than one dollar. He has already made plans for the erection of ten new schools to relieve the overcrowded condition in his present schools, but must wait for funds to begin construction, he said.
