Two long, wonderful months of vacation! July is just two days old and August is waiting right around the corner with wide open beaches, backyard wienie roasts, summer formal and perhaps even a session of summer school. By this time Norma DePrez you've made your vacation plans. They may include working in a department store or office to earn dollars designed for a "back-to-school" wardrobe or perhaps you plan to toast in the sun to a mellow tan. Mom may have put the accent on domesticity and before many more summer rains you will be a veteran at window washing or a past master in the skill of polishing silver to a lustrous shine. Your crew-cut casanova has faced the financial facts to find that just one month's pay will mean a new fender for his Model A.

Nun-Heroine

Sister Mary Chantal, heroine of World War II, pictured as she arrived in New York, en route to the Ursuline Convent at Blue Point, L. I., for a rest. The Allied Nations decorated her seven times for heroism in German prison camps and she carries with her a certificate from General Eisenhower to President Truman, commending her help and heroic conduct. Sister was an inmate of the Ravensbrück Prison Camp, in Germany, I.N.P. (NC Photos).

you become what you read. Every paragraph forms an idea; each page an attitude. At first you found yourself blushing a deep crimson at the big bad wolf in that last story but now you try to console yourself with the fact that everyone is reading this sort of rot so it can't be too wrong. This is treason to reason. Because everyone else is shattering his standards, isn't going to make it any easier for you to patch up the pulverized pieces of yours.

TEENTIMERS, here is our chance to prove to the older generation that bobble socks and boogie aren't our only interests. By keeping up with the daily news in the fields of foreign affairs and politics, consulting the Catholic press, making known our objections to an editor's too frank advertising policy, we're helping to keep the press 'on the beam.'

And perhaps a few well chosen words from big brother or sister will keep our kid brothers and sisters from buying those low rate comic books by the depressing dozens. If we grab a candid glimpse at the colorful pulps that Junior is buying, we'll find them crude and demoralizing. For the most part, they are no longer 'comic' as their name implies, but fantastic stories of superhuman sleuths.

Berlin Diary

Dear Father Dlusky, lone pastor of Russian Catholics in Berlin, must have food packages for his poor. Each costs ten dollars. He has depended on us entirely for the past two years. Won't you help?

SPECIAL MONSTRANCE

Can you give seventy-five dollars for the special monstrance for Benediction, which we shall place in the Shrine Chapel of St. Theresa, soon to be in Lebanon north of the Holy Land, for the conversion of Russia. The smallest gift will help, and we send you "The Unpetalled Rose," the Little Flower's picture and poem prayer.

EVER FLOWING

The Precious Blood of Jesus, honored especially during July, is ever flowing into our souls through the Sacraments. The Eucharistic Christ goes to our sick in the pyx, carried by the priest. Can you give ten dollars for this watch-like receptacle of gold and glass?

ALL THE MARKS

The Brother who saw Father Damien die testified that all the marks of leprosy left his face. Write for "TWO FACES" our picture folder on the leper priest. We send it to all who give to the DAMIEN LEPER FUND for our outcasts.

ADOPTED SON

Joseph Pall, twenty-four years old, has just completed his first year in the Seminary at Oradea Mare, Romania. Can you adopt him and give the five hundred dollars needed for the rest of his course? Read our new pamphlet "Hall, Flowers of the Martyrs."

POOR PAULISTS

Father Anthony, Superior of the Paulist Fathers at Harris, Lebanon, writes about the hardships endured by his five missionaries in the Valley of the Christians. He needs three hundred dollars for them very badly. Even a Mass offering will do much.

SISTER MARIE AGATHA

This young religious, nineteen years old, is a novice of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart at Sohag, Egypt, and you will have her everlasting prayers and thanks. If you can make her your adopted daughter in Christ and give three hundred dollars for her two-year course.

MOTHER MINE!

St. Augustine writes so glowingly of St. Monica, his mother, who reclaimed him from a life of sin by her prayers. After this holy woman we have named the MONICA GUILD, our Altar Sodality, whose members give a dollar monthly for vestments for needy Year East missionaries. A set costs thirty dollars, and we must send many to Bishop Scandar's new diocese of Assiut, Egypt. Won't you help?

KHERPA'S CHILDREN

By fall we hope to gather the orphan children of Kherpa, Iraq, into a modest little school, and Bishop Cheiko tells us that it will cost only $280! Can you give ten dollars for this watch-like receptacle of gold and glass?

TRUE DAUGHTERS OF CHARITY

At Hebo, East Africa, the Daughters of Charity have a hundred little orphan girls who must be fed and clothed. Won't you give a mite for "ORPHAN'S BREAD" and help us to make up the two hundred dollars they need so much? These children are lovely.

LAME BUT WALKING

Shoes are hard to get among our refugee seminarians at Hirschberg, Bavaria, and many limp along almost barefoot. A seven dollar gift will provide a pair of shoes. These young men are our great hope when the Church returns to Russian occupied lands.

SUMMER LAZY?

That dollar bill for the CHRYSOSTOM'S, our Student Support Club, or for the BASILIANS, our School Club, how much it will encourage our missionaries, who cannot be summer lazy. Have you read "ETERNAL YOUTH" our pamphlet on the priesthood?

GRANT ETERNAL REST

When death comes to a friend, why not enroll him in our Purgatorial Society and have him share in thousands of Masses, offered by our "Missionaries"? Twenty dollars will do this perpetually, one dollar for a year. We send a notice and certificate to the family.
