Lay Use Of School Building Urged

Greater use of Catholic school buildings for adult education in Catholic principles was foreseen by the Rev. James F. Slattery, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, in a talk at the Communism Breakfast meeting of the parish Holy Name Society on June 20 in the Howard Johnson restaurant.
Declaring that while "the Holy Name Society fully justifies its existence by providing an impetus to men to receive Holy Communion at least once monthly," Father Slattery asserted the Society is called upon in these days "to provide the lay leadership which is a necessary part of Catholic Action." Such leaders can best be produced, he added, through discussion groups which are willing to meet regularly to fully explore Catholic teaching.
Frank Oberkoetter succeeded James H. Farrell as president of the Society. Other officers elected were Martin Q. Moll, vice president; E. James Hickey, secretary, and Lawrence Mooney, treasurer.
Farrell, who presided, introduced Arthur P. Farren, executive secretary of the Diocesan Holy Name Union, who briefly outlined the objectives of the new Holy Name central office.

Gym To Honor Brother Gilbert

Danvers, Mass.—The late Brother Gilbert Cairnes, C. F. X., discoverer of "Babe" Ruth, will be immortalized with the construction of a modern gymnasium in his honor on the St. John's Preparatory School campus here.
A nationwide campaign for funds for the "Brother Gilbert Memorial Gymnasium" will get underway at once, according to Brother William C. F. X., headmaster at St. John's.
Although Brother Gilbert, who died while at prayer last October, gained his greatest fame as the discoverer of Ruth, he helped many youngsters along baseball trails, and was perhaps the sports
