National K. of C. Bowling Tournament Plans Launched

Plans for the Knights of Columbus National Bowling Tournament, Eastern Division, to be held in Rochester in 1948, were launched this week by Wilfred G. Albert, national secretary of Grand Haven, Mich., who has been in Rochester since Sunday.

The Five-Man event will be bowled at Buonomo Recreation and the Two-Man and singles will be scheduled at Webber's Hall. The tournament will open April 2, 1948, with a banquet on Sunday, April 3rd. The official opening squad will be scheduled at 1 P. M. at Buonomo's. Each week-end until May 15 it is expected that more than 100 five-men teams will travel to Rochester to take part in the event.

An entry of more than 500 teams is expected. The 1948 tournament was held at Syracuse and had an entry of 502 teams; the five-men event was won by Elizabeth K. of C. from Elizabeth, N. J.

Grand Knight John J. Kinney appointed Rocco Natale, chairman of the bowling committee; Joseph V. Alletto, Secretary and John J. Skelly, Treasurer. This committee will in turn name chairmen for various committees and begin active organization towards having one of the best tournaments ever held in the Eastern Division.

The Knights of Columbus National Bowling Association holds its annual tournament in two divisions: the Central Division was held at Dayton, Ohio in 1948 and had entered 878 teams. The 1949 Central Division will be held at Chicago, Ill.

All schedules for the Rochester event are held on Saturday and Sunday of each week-end and it is expected that 500 members of the order will visit Rochester each week-end of the tournament.

National Pilgrimage To Europe Slated

Eight countries will be visited this summer by members of the National Pilgrimage to Rome and Lourdes, personally conducted under His Excellency, Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston, according to the official itineraries announced last night. The pilgrims will sail from New York in the "Queen Mary," of Cunard White Star Line, on Saturday, August 14, while abroad they will tour Italy, France, Ireland, Switzerland, England, Belgium, Holland and Scotland.

Primary objectives of the pilgrimage will be the Vatican City in Rome and the Shrine of Lourdes in France, while the climax of this greatest pilgrimage in American religious history will be a private audience with His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, who has granted approval for the journey, which is sponsored by The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Since the first announcement of this mission was made several months ago, thousands of inquiries have been received and hundreds of reservations made, at pilgrimage headquarters, 378 Boylston Street, Boston. American Express Catholic Travel League has been designated to handle all travel arrangements for the pilgrimage.

Forman Employees At Annual Picnic

The key was turned in the lock at B. Forman Company at five o'clock Wednesday evening, a half hour earlier than usual.

The picnic was the annual store picnic, held at the store's own Camp Forman at Putneyville.

Eight Rochester Transit buses and a fleet of private cars transported over 500 employees and immediate relatives to the lakeside resort, where a typical picnic dinner provided the first order of business.

The picnic was under the auspices of the Employees Mutual Benefit Association, of which Charles Zeller is president, and a program of games and activities was under the supervision of a committee with J. Robert Fagan as general chairman. Prizes were awarded to the winners by Edward Forman and the return trip to the city began shortly after nine o'clock, with the affair unanimously voted a grand success.

Red Army Seizes College

Vienna—(NC)—A large part of the famous Jesuit college of Kalksburg, including the athletic grounds, has been requisitioned by the Red Army. Although informed that the part of the building had just been reconducted to provide badly needed room for the expansion of the college activities, the Russians announced that the requisition is to remain in force for at least one year.

40th Anniversary for Fr. Hens Syracuse—(NC)—The Most Rev. Bede Hess, recently re-elected Minister General of the Order of Friars Minor Conventual in Rome, Italy, will mark the 40th anniversary of his ordination while visiting the United States this summer.
