A quarter for the Porter

Most people don't mind paying for service received. (For instance, it's worth a quarter to have a porter carry a heavy bag.) But nearly everyone wants to be sure he isn't paying too much for what he gets.

Take loans, for example. More and more people are getting Personal Bank Loans because bank charges are so moderate. People who shop around for a loan usually end up by borrowing at the bank.

Come in and ask us about low cost personal bank loans for people with regular income.

Lyric for a Lady
(In Memory of Sister Anna De Paul, S.S.J.)
"Mary"
Thus life's dawning came
Heaven in God's Mother's name,
Intimations of whose grace
Flowered in your smiling face,
Maid ordained for virgin flight
To Christ your Bridegroom in the night
With Joseph, Ann, and one of Paul,
In Love's unending banquet hall,
Sainted now by sweetest home pain,
Take unto your care again
All your loved ones' hopes and fears,
The lonely vigil of their years,
Spouse of Christ, so dear, true,
His Song of Peace endurance
you!

Reformatory Chapel's 10th Anniversary Noted In Elmira

Marking the tenth anniversary of the dedication of St. Don Bosco Chapel in Elmira Reformatory, the Don Bosco Bulletin for July devotes the entire edition to the commemoration.

Featured prominently are full-page photos of His Excellency, Bishop James E. Kearney of Rochester, who officiated at the dedication June 28, 1937, and of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Lane, Catholic Chaplain at the Reformatory under whose direction the Chapel was built.

The front page carries a picture of the Pontifical Mass on the day of the dedication. Other photos show former inmates returning to the chapel for a visit, the old auditorium and the new chapel filled with inmates.

On the editorial page under the title "House of God," an editorial states:
"DURING THE PAST ten years, many thousands of so-called outcasts have attended Mass in this Chapel. Most of these have subsequently gone forth and have become successful in their various fields of endeavor and do not hesitate to say that the greatest influence for doing good during their stay in the Reformatory was the Chapel and its surroundings."

The Bulletin notes that during the past ten years, His Excellency Bishop Kearney has administered the Sacrament of Confirmation there seven times and has confirmed 350 men.

The difficulties and achievements in bringing the chapel into existence are cited by Monsignor Lane who is quoted as follows:
"Any success we may have attained and the great influence the Chapel has upon the men here, I attribute to the influences and intercession of our Patron Saint Don Bosco, to whom we dedicated our work."

In the history of the chapel it is pointed out that Elmira Reformatory was the first institution of its kind in the country to have erected within its walls a regular Catholic Chapel. Midnight Masses, Lenten services, special missions have been conducted by the Chaplain and by religious order priests. One of the outstanding events to the inmates was the investiture of their chaplain, Monsignor Lane in his robes as a domestic prelate on Nov. 20, 1947 by Bishop Kearney. It was the first ceremony of its kind to take place within prison walls.

Newsdealers Unite To Ban Bad Comics

Southern Tier newsdealers are determined to rid their racks of undesirable publications and are asking the public to cooperate.

As a result of the agitation caused by certain comic books having been declared a menace to readers especially youthful readers, an organization of newsdealers from Elmira, Corning, Athens, Wellsville, Watkins Glen and vicinity was formed Sunday night at Langwell Hotel, Elmira. C. B. Richardson of Athens, attending the meeting as an observer, declared: "This problem is nationwide and people are taking action on it." He told of a similar move in the Valley to form a dealer organization there.

The new association has the temporary title of Southern Tier Retail Magazine and Newsdealers Association. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, July 19 at 9 p. m. at the Langwell Hotel in Elmira.

ELECTED UNANIMOUSLY as president was Fred D. Crispin. He was placed in nomination by Leslie D. Kelly whose action in throwing out comics and other books regarded as undesirable focused attention on the publication and the manner in which they are distributed.

Mr. Kelly quoted a statement from Mr. Crispin suggesting that the group "promote the sale of clean and constructive literature" and deal with grievances of newsdealers in this area. "A code of ethics will be set up," Mr. Kelly said. "And we hope that the public will assist us."

Alton Fisher of the Northside Sweets Shop, Corning, urged each member to see other dealers in his community about joining the organization.

"THE DRUGGISTS are 100 percent behind this effort," declared Francis T. Steed, president of the Southern Tier Pharmaceutical Association.

Other members of the executive committee are: Van F. Kosmick, vice president; Jack Irish of Watkins Glen, secretary, and Stanley E. Weld, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were: Mr. Kelly, Mr. Fisher, John Dunn of Wellsville and Theodore Pitts and Joseph R. Johnson of Elmira.

Mr. Kelly drew the meeting's attention to the new Association of Comics Magazine Publishers set up July 1 to attempt self-regulation of the industry.
