IFCA To Stage Garden Fete For 6 Cenacle Nuns

· An informal welcome for the Religious of the Cenacie, now occupying the former Todd mansion. 693 East Ave., is being planned by the Rochester Circle. International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, for Sunday, Aug. 22, Feast of the immaculate Heart of Mary.

Miss Regina Kennedy, Regent of the local IFCA, has announced that tea will be served in the Cenacle garden from 3 to 5 p.m. Benediction will be given at 5:30

The occasion will afford Rochester's Catholic women the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the Religious of the Cenacle and their work, Miss Kennedy mainted out.

Two new members have joined the original group of four Rellp'ous of the Cenacle headed by Reverend Mother Angela Mur phy, who were welcomed to Rochester June 12 by His Excelency, Bishop Kearney. The Rev Paul E. Tuite is chaplain of the semi-cloistered community.

THE EAST AVENUE retreat iouse is now open for private retreatants, but no schedule for group retreats has been proonred, since the house is still be ing furnished and readled for the rooms, where daily Mass is said. The chapel is open to the public for Mass or meditation.

The special work of the Cenacle religious is the conducting of preached and private retreats for women and girls of every profes into action when he received an to the German parish by Mr and venience of individuals.
