

Group Asks More Interest In Scouting for Catholics

Wider interest of Catholic parishes in the promotion of Catholic Scouting will be sought under plans announced this week by Louis A. Langie, chairman of the Rochester Diocesan Lay Committee on Scouting.

New Auxiliary

Right Rev. Msgr. Edward Peter McManaman, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, Erie, Pa., who has been named by Pope Pius XII as Titular Bishop of Floriana and Auxiliary to Bishop John Mark Gannon of Erie. The Bishop-elect was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and ordained in Rome in 1927.

"It is our conviction that scouting under Catholic auspices is a combination of spiritual, recreational and educational programs for youth that, properly directed, can have a telling effect in the formation and development of sound Catholic Americans," the committee asserted.

POINTING OUT that expansion of Catholic Scouting "fulfills the express wishes of His Excellency, Bishop Kearney," the committee announcement stated that a booklet, "Scouting for Catholics—Adding the Supernatural" is being sent to all pastors whose parishes do not have Scout troops. Published by the National Catholic Committee on Scouting, it details scouting activities under Catholic auspices. The Rev. Walter A. Fischer, diocesan director of youth activities, is chairman of the Diocesan Lay Committee. Other members include David Brady, program chairman; Edward J. Keenan, activities; Fred Weber, secretary; and Martin Q. Moll, public relations.

CWV Asks Candidates To Air Stand on Leftist Aid

Asserting that "no sincere American can be a fellow traveler," a resolution adopted Wednesday night by Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans, called upon "every candidate for public office to make known his stand as to the offered support of those organizations with leftist leanings." Chapter delegates meeting in Holy Rosary Clubhouse, adopted the resolution as presented by James A. Ryan, commander of Holy Rosary Post and chairman of the Catholic Action Committee. It stated in part:

Whereas no sensible American on the one hand can condemn the communists and on the other hand support or condone one who consistently aids and abets the Communist plot; and
Whereas no true "American can be a Communist and no sincere American can be a fellow-traveler of the Communists; and
Whereas the above truths apply to every field of endeavor and in every undertaking in business, in labor, and last but by no means least, in the field of political activities; therefore be it
Resolved: That the Monroe County Chapter of the Catholic War Veterans demand that every candidate for public office, regardless of political affiliation, should make public proclamation of these truths, and refuse to be associated with or accept the support of any individual or committee or political party who do not proclaim these truths. And if he fails to do so, he should be rejected by an aroused citizenry.

Missioners Purchase Washington Estate

Arlington, Va. (N.C.) — The historic 127-acre Woodlawn which George Washington gave to his granddaughter, Nellie Custis as a wedding present, has been purchased by the Immaculate Heart of Mary missionaries, they disclosed at their U. S. headquarters here. The purchase of the estate, near Mount Vernon was $185,000. The sale is subject to approval by the Fairfax County Circuit Court.

The estate has a 20-room mansion built by Miss Custis in 1804 and remodeled by the late Sena for Oscar Underwood of Alabama in 1925. The site is expected to become the new headquarters of Immaculate Heart of Mary Fathers in the United States, while their present headquarters will be used as a mission procuratorship and for promotion work.

try and abroad who are determined, if possible, to drive God out of His world," he declared. "We must be on the alert to see that they do not succeed."

MONSIGNOR Cowen cited three things "we all can do that will build better individuals and a better community during the coming years — attending church every Sunday, praying to God every day and obeying the Ten Commandments."

The Rev. Jerome Houbrow, pastor of St. Hyacinth's Church, opened the program with an invocation. After the singing of "America," City Manager George F. Dain, rally chairman, introduced Mayor Edward T. Boyle, who gave the official welcome. The Cayuga County Parks Board, under direction of Harold Henderson, played a concert and supplied music throughout the program.

Parishioners of St. Mary's Church opened the Centennial Week with prayer at a High Mass of Thanksgiving Sunday morning.

Rosary Group Spends Day at Lake Retreat

Canandaigua — A group of 42 women of St. Mary's Rosary Society recently spent a Day of Recollection at Our Lady of the Lake Retreat House at Geneva under the guidance of the Very Rev. Augustine J. Aylward, C.S.S.R.

In a talk at the breakfast, the Rev. Thomas J. Sanderson, C.S.S.R., assistant master of the day, offered suggestions on achieving holiness in one's state in life. An instruction on the ceremonies of the Mass was given and Stations of the Cross were said.

THE DAY'S conferences were based on the Beatitude, "Blessed are they that suffer persecution for justice's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven," and on the life of the Blessed Virgin. The program included recitation of the Rosary and a Holy Hour closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Papal Blessing.

Before the departure of the women, Father Aylward blessed all the cars in the group. The group was under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Rodney, vice-president of the Rosary Society.

Passionist Will Conduct Triduum

Auburn — A triduum of devotion in honor of Our Lady of the Assumption, patroness of St. Mary's Church, will be held in the church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 12, 13 and 14 closing with reception of Holy Communion on the Feast of the Assumption, Sunday, Aug. 15.

The Rev. Athanasius Burke, a member of the Passionist Congregation, will conduct the triduum.

Capt. Flannigan Here on Visit

Geneva — Capt. William C. Flannigan, formerly of Geneva, with Mrs. Flannigan and their two children, Billie and Jane, have arrived from Fairfield, Cal., to visit Mrs. Flannigan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bredeson of Seneca Castle, and Geneva friends.

Saturday Club To Hear Priest Talk

The "Nativity" third joyful mystery of the Rosary will be discussed by the Rev. John Marklinger, assistant pastor of St. Anne's Church, at the regular luncheon of the First Saturday Club at 12:15 p. m. Aug. 7 in the Powers Hotel.

Father Marklinger also is chaplain at Rochester Municipal and Strong Memorial Hospitals and Monroe County Home and Infirmary.
