Fr. Vogt at Youth Stamp Ceremony at White House

The Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, chaplain at the New York State Industrial School at Industry, headed for the White House in Washington this week to participate in ceremonies inaugurating a new commemorative stamp to be known as the "Salute to Youth."

Father Vogt, widely known for his work with children and young people, was invited because of his recognized leadership in the field of delinquency. The ceremonies were scheduled Thursday.

Two years ago Father Vogt attended the National Conference on Delinquency in Washington on invitation of Attorney General Thomas Clark. He aided in formulating recommendations adopted by the Conference relative to the prevention of delinquency and the care of delinquents.

AFTER THE conference he received a letter of thanks from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for the assistance he gave to the FBI agent studying the field of delinquency.

Ordained in 1931, Father Vogt first served as assistant pastor of St. Boniface Church. He joined the staff of Rochester Catholic Charities in 1937. As director of its Social Action Department he supervised the Charles S. Sibley House, Genesee Institute, Columbus Youth Association and Camp Stella Maria. He also served as Diocesan Chaplain of Catholic Scout troops.

Father Vogt has been chaplain at Industry since 1944. He has two brothers also priests of Rochester Diocese—the Rev. George C. Vogt, pastor of Church of the Good Shepherd, Henrietta, and St. Joseph's Church, Rush, and the Rev. Francis H. Vogt, assistant pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Church, Rochester.

Chicken Dinner Set

St. Leo's Church is planning a Chicken Dinner and Bazaar on the church grounds, Lake Avenue, Hilton, on Saturday evening, August 28, beginning at 5:00 p. m. The committee in charge of the dinner includes Mrs. Alden Earl Hubble and Mrs. Raymond Kress.

REV. JOSEPH E. VOGT

Pray for Peace, Speaker Pleads

"The puny efforts of all men on earth to establish permanent peace would accomplish absolutely nothing without prayer for God's grace," the Rev. John S. Whalen told members of the First Friday Luncheon Club last week.

Speaking on "The Immaculate Heart of Mary," Father Whalen, assistant pastor of Holy Rosary Church, told the men at their Sheraton Hotel luncheon:

"We must bear in mind the importance of our Holy Father's words: that it is our personal duty to say the Rosary daily in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary that she might intercede with her Divine Son to grant peace to the world."

The Rev. Arthur E. Raligan, club moderator, introduced the speaker. Members applauded the sermon of George McKay, first Baron, Mrs. Robert Dawson, Mrs. Earl Hubble and Mrs. Raymond Kress.

Closed Lay Retreat Calls 45 St. Augustine's Men

Geneva—An active program has been conducted at Our Lady of the Lake Retreat and Mission House this Summer.

Averaging about 50 men per weekend, the retreat house attracts Catholic laymen from the Rochester diocese particularly from Rochester, Elmira and Corning.

During the past weekend, 45 men came from St. Augustine's parish in Rochester, accompanied by the pastor the Rt. Rev. Magr. John M. Duffy.

Conducted regularly from May to November, the retreat house program extends from Friday evening through Sunday afternoon. Mass, conferences, meditation, Holy Hours, stations of the cross, and a period of silence make up the schedule.

Rev. Augustine Aylward, C.S.S.R., conducts the retreats, as assisted by Rev. Edmund Bowen, C.S.S.R., and Rev. John Geary, C.S.S.R.

Two separate groups of Sampson college students have attended retreats this year. Three retreats have been given for women, one for nurses, and one each for women of Canandaigua and Geneva. Women's retreats are for a day only.

Priests of the Rochester diocese also make use of the retreat house once a month in a Day of Recollection, usually held on Thursday.

St. Donati Club At Geneva Mass
Geneva—A Solemn High Mass was celebrated Saturday at St. Francis de Sales church in honor of St. Donati.

Arrangements for the Mass were made by the members of the St. Donati club of the parish.

Fr. Mason To Fete DeSales Class

Twentieth annual reunion of DeSales High School class of 1928 will be held at St. Ambrose parish hall, Rochester, on Thursday evening, August 19. The Rev. Frank W. Mason, pastor of St. Ambrose who was principal of the Geneva high school when the class was graduated will be host.

In spite of wartime restrictions and military service by its members, the class of 1928 has maintained an unbroken record of annual reunions, a distinction shared only with the class of 1925.

Richard F. Jannings and Frank J. Conboy, both of Ithaca, are co-chairmen of this year's reunion.

Miss Mary Hamill and Mrs. John Cooney, both of Geneva are chairwomen of transportation and arrangements, respectively.

An 8 o'clock dinner will include an appropriate program. A record attendance is anticipated at this first big post-war reunion of the class, the committee states.

District Leaders Named By K. of C.
Appointments of 62 Knights of Columbus district deputies in New York State by State Deputy William E. Burke of Utica are announced this week.

Francis T. Toomey was renominated district deputy of district 56 comprising Rochester, Canandaigua and Palmyra. Others named in the Rochester diocese area are Eugene F. Agan, Elmira and Victor; A. DeWeaver, Newark.

In the western and central part of the state district leaders are: James A. Davis, Johnson City; William J. Nix, Cortland; Harry L. Beaudoin, Syracuse; Adelbert F. Merry, Batavia; Marvin G. Schwert, Hamburg; Anthony J. Haley, Lockport; Vincent J. Lennon, Allegany; James P. McGuinness, Wellsville; and George T. Burns.

CORRECTION
In the account of the death of the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor of St. Ann's Church, Hornell, last week one of his survivors was inadvertently omitted.

He is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Earle Knopf, Lockport; Sister Bernadette of Lourdes Hospital, Binghamton; Miss Rose E. Dissett, Hornell; and Mrs. J. H. Sentner, Pt. Pleasant, N. Y. and a niece, Miss Bernadette Sentner.
