Monsignor Andrew P. Machinery Set For Grievances By News Dealers

Setting up machinery to deal with grievances, by appointment of two committees, the Southern Tier Retail Magazine and News Dealers Association also planned to continue its membership campaign, at a meeting Monday.

The association will meet again August 16 at 9 p. m. at the Langwell Hotel. Twenty-three dealers have joined the association. Membership cards are being prepared to display on their magazine racks.

The association's discussion developed a consensus that members do not have the time to censor each publication offered by distributors. Fred D. Crispin, president, said that dealers have sought the privilege of rejecting any publication they are unable to sell or to regulate their orders. He stated that a Parent-Teacher group is interested in screening on the basis of demand.

Mr. Crispin said he under comics books to eliminate such as they regard as not proper for children. The association decided to defer any action it might take along this line until organizational plans are completed. Grievance committees were chosen to operate in two fields — newspaper distributors and magazines. On the former are Ray Sullivan, Joseph Johnson and Theodore Pitt. On the magazine committee are Stanley Weid, Thomas MacDonald and Leslie Kelly.

'Fugitive' Film Shows in Newark Slated by K. of C.

Newark — Sponsored by Newark Council, Knights of Columbus showing of 'The Fugitive,' a movie drama of a heroic priest is scheduled for next Tuesday and Wednesday, August 17 and 18 at the Newark Capital Theatre.

Proceeds of this film starring Henry Fonda and Dolores Del Rio will go into the Knights of Columbus fund for the Newark Council's annual Community Christmas Party for local children.

Henry Fonda plays the role of the courageous priest in a Latin American country where he risks his life to continue his work despite the government's decree against religious activity. With the help of Dolores Del Rio, a wayward but loveable Latin girl, he escapes the searching soldiers. But in returning to minister last rites to an American "gringo" criminal, Ward Bond, he is betrayed by a police informer, J. Carrol Nash, and goes to his fate proudly in a dramatic climax. Tickets may be purchased from members of the Newark Knights of Columbus.
