

Clambake Mapped

Geneva—Members of the Holy Name Society of St. Stephen's parish are planning to hold a clambake this month. Time and place are to be announced later. The event is open to members, their wives and friends. The program will include golf in the afternoon, a clambake, and dancing in the evening.

Capuchin Fathers Preparing Geneva Villa for Monastery

Geneva—The Rev. Seraphim Tirone, O. F. M. Cap., this week took over the villa and 12-acre estate overlooking Seneca Lake which was acquired last month by his superiors, the Capuchin Fathers of the Stigmata of St. Francis, Italy.

Father Tirone, who is moving here from Buffalo, will begin the task of cleaning the three-story villa and adapting it for whatever monastic use will be decided soon. Three clerics will assist Father Tirone in the task. The building, located on Lochland Road, will be ready by autumn. The Fathers who will come here are of the Italian-American Custodia, Order of Friars Minor Capuchin. The Custodia established in the United States includes a motherhouse in Bronx, N. Y., a house of studies in Virginia, a seminary at Beacon, N. Y., and six parishes in the Archdioceses of New York and Newark and in the Diocese of Patterson.

Their work includes retreats and missions given in Italian and English. The Rev. Andrew Petralla, O. F. M. Cap., assistant to the provincial in Bronx and pastor of Mt. Carmel Church, Orange, N. J., will leave this week for Rome, Italy, to confer with his superiors and to visit monasteries and seminaries damaged by war.

Machinery Set For Grievances By News Dealers

Setting up machinery to deal with grievances, by appointment of two committees, the Southern Tier Retail Magazine and News Dealers Association also planned to continue its membership campaign, at a meeting Monday.

The association will meet again August 16 at 9 p. m. at the Langwell Hotel. Twenty-three dealers have joined the association. Membership cards are being prepared to display on their magazine racks.

The association's discussion developed a consensus that members do not have the time to censor each publication offered by distributors. Fred D. Crispin, president, said that dealers have sought the privilege of rejecting any publication they are unable to sell or to regulate their orders on the basis of demand.

Mr. Crispin said he understood that a Parent/Teacher group is interested in screening comic books to eliminate such as they regard as not proper for children. The association decided to defer any action it might take along this line until organizational plans are completed.

Grievance committees were chosen to operate in two fields—newspaper distributors and magazines. On the former are Ray Sullivan, Joseph Johnson and Theodore Pitt. On the magazine committee are Stanley Weid, Thomas MacDonald and Leslie Kelly.

Aided Relief

Monsignor Andrew P. Landi, of Brooklyn, who has just returned to the United States after four years' service in Italy as a delegate of War Relief Services, National Catholic Welfare Conference, Monsignor Landi declared that American voluntary agencies must continue their direct relief operations in Europe until the full effects of the Marshall Plan are felt.

Fr. Mason To Fete DeSales Class

Twentieth annual reunion of DeSales High School class of 1928 will be held at St. Ambrose parish hall, Rochester, on Thursday evening, August 19. The Rev. Frank W. Mason pastor of St. Ambrose who was principal of the Geneva high school when the class was graduated will be host.

In spite of wartime restrictions and military service by its members, the class of 1928 has maintained an unbroken record of annual reunions, a distinction shared only with the class of 1925.

Richard F. Jannings and Frank J. Conboy, both of Ithaca, are co-chairmen of this year's reunion. Miss Mary Hamill and Mrs. John Conroy, both of Geneva are chairmen of transportation and arrangements, respectively.

An 8 o'clock dinner will include an appropriate program. A record attendance is anticipated at this first big post war reunion of the class, the committee states.

Requiem Offered For Elmira Hero

The Rev. Albert L. Simonetti, pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, celebrated a Requiem Mass Monday, Aug. 9 in St. Patrick's Church for Flight Officer Armand E. D'Abbracci, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco D'Abbracci of 315 Webber Pl., who gave his life in action Feb. 17, 1944.

Bearers, all members of St. Anthony's Post 1144, Catholic War Veterans, were: Salvatore Spalzone, Daniel Lombardi, Leonard Coral, Lewis Bowdy, Michael Cerio and Nicholas DeStafano.

The body was sent to Erie, Pa. this afternoon via the Lackawanna Railroad for burial in the family plot in Cavalry Cemetery.
