Two Area Priests Study At Trapp Family Camp

Names of Rochester area residents continue to appear on the roster at the Trapp Family Camp in the Vermont mountains, according to the Rev. John T. Callahan, chaplain of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Father Callahan and the Rev. Charles J. McCarthy, professor of sacred music at St. Bernard's Seminary, attended the Liturgical Week course at the camp a fortnight ago. The session specialized in Gregorian, with High Mass and Compline rendered daily in the beautiful rustic chapel.

Continuing expansion of the camp facilities and of the Trapp farm home two miles away was reported by the priests. Two new wings are being added to the chalet-like house in preparation for a continued winter program.

The Trapp Family, now American citizens, is well-known in Rochester by reason of the three concerts they have given here in the last few years. Their summer sing sessions have attracted 2,000 persons to the Vermont hills in the last five years.
