Oklahoma Women TO Get D.C.C.W. Speakers' Plan

From Oklahoma to Washington to Rochester. That was the course of a letter seeking information on the establishment of a Catholic Women's Speakers Bureau. Oklahoma women to know and Washington, D. C. referred them to Rochester.

Mrs. Richard L. Kalb, president of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women reported receipt last week of a letter from Mrs. Alfred Rice, chairman of the Parent Teachers Association committee of the Oklahoma Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

MRS. RICE, seeking to set up a Speakers Bureau in her diocese had written Miss Ruth Craven, executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Women in Washington. Miss Craven referred her to the Rochester DCCW, which she said, "has set up a very successful bureau."

Now in its second year, the local bureau reported this week that its members had given 81 talks from September through June. 31 to organizations in the Auburn and Elmira Dioceses. Mrs. Farren reported. The Rochester group, therefore, heretofore identified as the Rochester Deanery Catholic Women's Speakers Bureau.

K. C. Names Natalie As Bowling Aide Appointment of Rocco F. Natalie of 38 Child St. as district commissioner for the Knights of Columbus National Bowling Tournament was announced this week by President James J. Collins of Chicago.

The eastern division of the tournament will be held in Rochester with Rochester Council as host in the spring of 1949.

Natalie is district warden of the K. of C. and a former warden of Rochester Council. He is active in the K. of C. Canteen Group serving disabled veterans from area hospitals.
